ARTICLE III

PURPOSES; RESTRICTIONS

Section 1. Purposes. This Declaration is being made to establish separate individual parcels from the Condominium Property to which fee simple interests may be conveyed; to create restrictions, covenants, and easements providing for, promoting, and preserving the values of Units and the Common Elements and the well-being of Unit Owners and Occupants; and to establish a Unit Owners' association to administer the Condominium and the Condominium Property, to administer and enforce the covenants, easements, charges, and restrictions set forth in this Declaration, and to raise funds through Assessments to accomplish these purposes.

Section 2. Restrictions. The Condominium and the Condominium Property shall be benefited by and subject to the following restrictions:

(a) Animals. Except as hereinafter provided, no animals, livestock, or poultry of any kind shall be raised, bred, or kept in any Unit or on the Limited Common Elements or the Common Elements. Notwithstanding the foregoing, household domestic pets, not bred or maintained for commercial purposes, may be maintained in a Unit, provided that: (i) the maintaining of animals shall be subject to such rules and regulations as the Board may from time to time promulgate, including, without limitation, the right to place limitations on the size, number and type of such pets, and the right to levy enforcement charges and Special Individual Unit Assessments against Persons who do not clean up after their pets; and (ii) the right of an Occupant to maintain an animal in a Unit shall be subject to termination if the Board, in its full and complete discretion, determines that maintenance of the animal constitutes a nuisance or creates a detrimental effect on the Condominium or other Units or Occupants

(b) Architectural Control. Except for improvements constructed by Declarant or its designee during the initial construction of improvements on the Condominium Property, or as specifically permitted by this Declaration, no building, fence, wall, sign, or other structure or improvement shall be commenced, erected, or maintained upon the Condominium Property, or any part thereof, nor shall any exterior addition to or change or alteration therein be made that is visible to the exterior of a Unit until the plans and specifications showing the nature, kind, shape, height, materials, color, and location of the same shall have been submitted to and approved in writing by the Board or its designated representative or representatives, in its or their sole and unfettered discretion. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, nothing visible to the exterior shall be permitted to be hung, placed, displayed, or maintained on the exterior of a Unit or in or on the Limited Common Elements or be otherwise visible from the outside of a Unit unless approved, in writing, by the Board or its designated representative or representatives, in its or their sole and unfettered discretion, or unless the same is authorized by this Declaration or an existing rule or regulation adopted by the Board. Notwithstanding any repair or maintenance provision contained in this Declaration to the contrary, the Board may require, as a condition to approval, that the responsibility for repairing and maintaining the addition or improvement shall be the responsibility of the requesting Unit Owner and all future owners of that Unit. Charcoal grills are prohibited on any deck or rooftop terrace.

(c) Common Element Uses. The Common Elements (except the Limited Common Elements) shall be used in common by Unit Owners and Occupants and their agents, servants, customers, invitees, and licensees in accordance with the purposes for which they are intended, reasonably suited, and capable, and as may be required for the purposes of access, ingress to, egress from, use, occupancy, and enjoyment of Units. Unless expressly provided otherwise in the Condominium Organizational Documents, no Common Element (other than Limited Common Elements) shall be used for any purpose other than the health, safety, welfare, convenience, comfort, recreation, or enjoyment of Unit Owners and Occupants. The Common Elements (including the Limited Common Elements) shall be subject to the provisions of the Condominium Organizational Documents and to such rules and regulations as may be duly promulgated by the Board from time to time.

(d) Construction in Easements. No structure, planting, or other material shall be placed or permitted to remain within the easements for the installation and maintenance of utilities and drainage facilities which may damage or interfere with the installation and maintenance of utility lines, which may change the direction of the flow of drainage channels in the easements, or which may obstruct or retard the flow of water through drainage channels in the easement areas. The utility facilities within the easement areas shall be subject to the right of the Condominium Association to maintain the same and its right to delegate that right to a public authority or utility.

(e) Conveyances. Each Unit shall be conveyed or transferred (voluntarily or involuntarily) as a separately designated and legally described freehold estate subject to the terms, conditions, and provisions of the Condominium Organizational Documents. The undivided interest of a Unit in the Common Elements shall be deemed to be conveyed or encumbered with the Unit even though that interest is not expressly mentioned or described in the deed, mortgage, or other instrument of conveyance or encumbrance. Any conveyance, encumbrance, judicial sale, or other transfer (voluntary or involuntary) of an interest in the Common Elements will be void unless the Unit to which that interest is allocated is also transferred to the same transferee. In any instrument of conveyance, in any instrument creating an encumbrance, or in any other document legally describing a Unit, it shall be sufficient to lawfully describe a Unit and that Unit's interest in the Common Elements by referring to the Unit designation of the Unit and the appropriate recording references of the initial page of this Declaration and the Drawings. The right of a Unit Owner to sell, transfer or otherwise convey that Unit Owner's Unit is not subject to any right of first refusal, and any Unit Owner may transfer that Unit Owner's Unit free of any such limitation. To enable the Condominium Association to maintain accurate records of the names and addresses of Unit Owners, each Unit Owner agrees to notify the Condominium Association, in writing, within five days after an interest in that Unit Owner's Unit has been transferred to another Person. In addition, each Unit Owner agrees to provide a copy of the Condominium Organizational Documents and all effective rules and regulations to a purchaser of that Unit Owner's Unit.

(f) Discrimination/Handicapped Accommodation. No action shall at any time be taken by the Condominium Association or the Board which in any manner would unlawfully discriminate against any Unit Owner in favor of another. In addition, notwithstanding any provision of the Declaration, or any rule or regulation, the Board shall make reasonable accommodation if necessary to afford a handicapped person equal opportunity to use and enjoy the Condominium Property, provided that nothing contained in this Declaration shall be construed to mean or imply that any such accommodation be at the cost of the Condominium Association.

(g) Limited Common Element Uses. Subject to the provisions of the Condominium Organizational Documents and the rules and regulations of the Condominium Association, those portions of the Common Elements described in this Declaration and/or shown on the Drawings as Limited Common Elements shall be used and possessed exclusively by the Unit Owners and Occupants of the Unit or Units served by the same, as specified in this Declaration or the Drawings, and shall be used only for the purposes intended and subject to the other provisions of the Condominium Organizational Documents and such rules and regulations as may from time to time be duly promulgated by the Board.

(h) Offensive Activities. No noxious or offensive activity or abusive or harassing behavior, or any form of intimidation or aggression, either verbal or physical, shall be engaged in or carried on in any Unit, or upon the Common Elements or Limited Common Elements, nor shall any Common Element or Limited Common Element be used in any way or for any purpose which may endanger the health of or unreasonably disturb any Occupant, or which might intimidate or interfere with the activities of any Occupant or representative of the Condominium Association or its managing agent, or their licensees or invitees.

(i) Reallocations. Except as otherwise provided by the Declaration or Ohio law, boundaries between Units and/or between Units and appurtenant Limited Common Elements shall not be adjusted nor undivided interests in Units reallocated (except in the event of an expansion of the Condominium), nor rights to use Limited Common Elements reallocated, without the express prior written consent of the Board, which it may grant or refuse in its sole and unfettered discretion.

(j) Renting and Leasing. No Unit or part thereof shall be rented or used for hotel purposes or transient purposes, which is defined as (i) rental under which Occupants are provided customary hotel services such as room service for food and beverages, maid service, the furnishing of laundry and linen, busboy service, and similar services; or (ii) rental to roomers or boarders, that is, rental to one or more persons of a portion of a Unit only. No lease may be of less than an entire Unit. No Unit may be rented for any period of less than thirty (30) days. Any lease agreement shall be in writing, shall provide that the lease shall be subject in all respects to the provisions of the Condominium Organizational Documents and to the rules and regulations promulgated from time to time by the Board, and shall provide that the failure by the tenant to comply with the terms of the Condominium Organizational Documents and lawful rules and regulations shall be a default under the lease. The Condominium Association shall not have the right to initiate or prosecute eviction proceedings to evict a tenant of a Unit, either in its own name, as agent of the Condominium Association, or in the name of the Unit Owner. Prior to the commencement of the term of a lease, the Unit Owner shall notify the Board, in writing, of the name or names of the tenant or tenants, and all Occupants, and the time during which the lease term shall be in effect. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, there are no limitations on the number of Units that may be rented or leased or the number of Units that any Unit Owner may own.

(k) Replacements. Any building erected to replace an existing building containing Units shall be of new construction, be of comparable structure type, size, design, and construction as that replaced, and shall contain a like number of Units of comparable size to the Units in the building replaced.

(l) Rules and Regulations. In addition to adopting and enforcing rules and regulations in the instances specifically mentioned in the Declaration, the Board may, from time to time, adopt and enforce such further reasonable rules and regulations as it deems necessary and/or desirable to promote harmony, to serve the best interests of the Unit Owners, as a whole, and the Condominium Association, and/or to protect and preserve the nature of the Condominium and the Condominium Property. A copy of all rules and regulations shall be furnished by the Board to the Unit Owners prior to the time when the same shall become effective.

(m) Signs; Commercial Devices. No sign, insignia, display, device, or form of external evidence of commercial advertising or use, of any kind, shall be displayed to the public view on the Condominium Property or on anything on the Condominium Property, except: (i) on the Common Elements, signs regarding and regulating the use of the Common Elements, provided they are approved by the Board; (ii) on the interior side of the window of a Unit, one professionally prepared sign not in excess of four (4) square feet in size, advertising the Unit for sale or rent; and (iii) signs and other displays on the Common Elements approved by the Board in its discretion, (iv) signs and notices required by law; and (v) on the Common Elements, Limited Common Elements and model Units, signs advertising the sale and/or rental of Units by Declarant during the period of Declarant's sale and rental of Units shall be permitted, provided, if these limitations on use of signs, or any part thereof, are determined to be unlawful, only the signs described in subitem (i), above, shall be permitted after the Condominium has been expanded to its fullest extent and Declarant has sold and conveyed all Units in the Condominium.

(n) Structural Integrity. Nothing shall be done in any Unit, or in, on, or to the Common Elements or Limited Common Elements, which may impair the structural integrity of any improvement.

(o) Unit Uses. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Declaration, no Unit shall be used for any purpose other than that of a residence for individuals living together as a single housekeeping unit, and uses customarily incidental thereto; provided, however, that no Unit may be used as a rooming house, group home, commercial foster home, fraternity or sorority house, or any similar type of lodging, care or treatment facility. Notwithstanding the foregoing: (i) an Occupant maintaining a personal or professional library, keeping personal business or professional records or accounts, conducting personal business (provided that such use does not involve customers, employees, licensees, or invitees coming to the Unit), making professional telephone calls or corresponding, in or from a Unit, is engaging in a use expressly declared customarily incidental to residential use and is not in violation of these restrictions; (ii) it shall be permissible for Declarant to maintain, during the period of Declarant's sale or rental of Units, one or more Units, whether hereby made a part of the Condominium, or added hereafter, as sales and rental models and offices, and for storage and maintenance purposes; and (iii) one or more of such Units or a portion thereof may be maintained for the use of the Condominium Association in fulfilling its responsibilities.

(p) Vehicles. Excepting Declarant's construction and sales activities, the Board may promulgate rules and regulations restricting or prohibiting the parking of automobiles, vans, buses, inoperable vehicles, trucks, trailers, boats, and recreational vehicles on the Common Elements, including the Limited Common Elements, or parts thereof, and may enforce such regulations or restrictions by levying enforcement charges, having such vehicles towed away, or taking such other lawful actions as the Board, in its sole discretion, deems appropriate. Under no circumstances, however, may a vehicle be parked in such a manner as to unreasonably interfere with vehicular access to another Unit Owner's garage. The foregoing provisions of this paragraph notwithstanding, the Board may permit the occasional, non-recurring parking of vehicles otherwise prohibited hereby or by the rules provided that such parking does not unreasonably interfere with vehicular access to another Unit Owner's garage.

(q) Visible Areas. Nothing shall be caused or permitted to be hung or displayed on the outside or inside of windows (except inoffensive interior drapes, curtains, or louvered blinds) or placed on the outside walls of a building or otherwise outside of a Unit or any part thereof, and no awning, canopy, shutter or (to the extent that such limitation is not prohibited by law) television or citizens' band or other radio antenna or transmitter, or any other device, ornament, equipment, decoration, or improvement shall be affixed to or placed upon an exterior wall or roof or any part thereof, or the exterior of any door or window, or in, on, or over a patio, porch, deck, balcony, terrace, or stoop, visible to the exterior, unless authorized by the Board and subject to such rules and regulations as the Board may adopt from time to time. The Board may designate locations for antennae and may require coverings for such devices to the extent not prohibited by law.

ARTICLE VI

COMMON AND LIMITED COMMON ELEMENTS

Section 1. Common Elements - Description. All of the Condominium Property, including all of the land and all improvements thereon and appurtenances thereto, except those portions labeled or described in this Declaration or on the Drawings as a part of a Unit, are Common Elements.

Section 2. Limited Common Elements - Description. Those portions of the Common Elements labeled or designated "Limited Common Elements" on the Drawings or as described herein are Limited Common Elements. In the case of each Unit, these Limited Common Elements consist of one or more of a front stoop or porch, a rear deck or patio area, and all improvements within that area (except components of the Unit and/or utility lines that serve other Units), a driveway area, and in some instances, a rooftop terrace. Each such Limited Common Element is reserved for the exclusive use of the Unit Owners and Occupants of the Unit or Units it is designed or designated to serve.

Section 3. Undivided Interest. The undivided interest in the Common Elements of each Unit is shown on the attached Exhibit C and, in each case, is based on each Unit having an equal undivided interest. The Common Elements shall be owned by the Unit Owners as tenants in common, and ownership thereof shall remain undivided. No Unit Owner may waive or release any rights in the Common Elements. Further, the undivided interest in the Common Elements of a Unit shall not be separated from the Unit to which it appertains.

ARTICLE VII

ASSOCIATIONS

Section 1. Establishment of Condominium Association. The Condominium Association has been formed to be and to serve as the Unit Owners' association of the Condominium. Declarant is initially the sole member of the Condominium Association.

Section 2. Membership. Membership in the Condominium Association shall be limited to the Unit Owners, and every Person who is or becomes a record owner of a fee or undivided fee simple interest in a Unit is a Unit Owner and shall be a member. The foregoing is not intended to include Persons who hold an interest merely as security for the performance of an obligation.

Membership shall be appurtenant to and may not be separated from ownership of any Unit, and transfer of a Unit shall automatically transfer membership to the transferee.

Section 3. Voting Rights. Voting rights of members are as set forth in the Bylaws.

Section 4. Board of Directors. The number, composition, authority, rights, and responsibilities of the Board of Directors shall be as provided in the Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws, provided that no member of the Board need be a Unit Owner but shall meet the qualifications set forth in the Bylaws. The Board shall exercise all powers and have all authority, under law and under the provisions of the Condominium Organizational Documents, that are not specifically and exclusively reserved to the Unit Owners by law or by other provisions of the Condominium Organizational Documents and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, shall have those powers and authority set forth in Article IV of the Bylaws.

Section 5. Security. The Condominium Association may, from time to time, provide measures of security on or with respect to the Condominium Property and/or its Unit Owners, Occupants, invitees, and licensees. However, the Condominium Association is not and shall not be deemed to be a provider of security, shall have no duty to provide any security on the Condominium Property or with respect to its Unit Owners, Occupants, invitees, or licensees, and shall not be held liable for any loss, cost, or damage arising by the failure of the Condominium Association to provide security or the effectiveness of security measures it undertakes, if any. The obligation to provide security lies solely with each Unit Owner and Occupant individually.

Section 6. Privacy. While the Condominium Association may adopt policies or procedures designed, directly or indirectly, to support the privacy of Persons, property, and/or data, the Condominium Association shall have no obligation to do so. Each Unit Owner and Occupant agrees and accepts that the Condominium Association does not guarantee the privacy of any Person or that Person's property or data. TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, NEITHER THE CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION NOR THE DECLARANT SHALL HAVE ANY DUTY OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, TO PROTECT THE PRIVACY OF ANY UNIT OWNER OR OCCUPANT, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION THE PRIVACY OF THAT UNIT OWNER'S OR OCCUPANT'S PERSON, PROPERTY OR DATA, AND EACH UNIT OWNER AND OCCUPANT RELEASES THE CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION AND DECLARANT AND THEIR RESPECTIVE BOARD MEMBERS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES AND AGENTS FROM ANY LIABILITY, RESPONSIBILITY, AND DAMAGE OF EVERY KIND RELATING TO PRIVACY OR A BREACH, LOSS OR INVASION OF PRIVACY.

Section 7. Other Associations. There is no requirement that the Condominium Association or that any Unit Owners be members of a not-for-profit organization that provides facilities or recreation, education, or social services to owners of property other than the Condominium Property.

ARTICLE VIII

AGENT FOR SERVICE

The name of the Person to receive service of process for the Condominium Association, the Condominium Association's "Statutory Agent", and that Person's residence or place of business, which is in the State of Ohio, is:

Brosius, Johnson & Griggs, LLC
1600 Dublin Road, Suite 100
Columbus, Ohio 43215

In the event this Person for any reason ceases to be registered with the Secretary of State of Ohio as Statutory Agent for the Condominium Association, the Person so registered shall be the Person to receive service of process for the Condominium Association.

ARTICLE IX

MAINTENANCE AND REPAIR

Section 1. Condominium Association Responsibility. Except to the extent that improvements or items located in or made part of the Common Elements are to be maintained by the individual Unit Owners or a utility provider, the Condominium Association, to the extent and at such times as the Board, in its exercise of business judgment, determines to allocate funds therefor, shall maintain, repair and replace all improvements constituting a part of the Common Elements, including the Limited Common Elements, and including but not limited to the utility lines serving more than one Unit, porches, stoops, decks, rooftop terraces, patios, lawns, shrubs, trees, sidewalks, driveways, private drives, and the structural portions and exterior portions of all buildings and improvements which are a part of the Common Elements, and that do not constitute part of a Unit, provided that the Condominium Association shall not be responsible for the cleaning and housekeeping of Limited Common Elements or components thereof. Except to the extent, if any, that insurance maintained by the Condominium Association covers a loss, and then only to the extent the net proceeds, after deductibles, are available for that purpose, the Condominium Association shall not have the responsibility to pay the cost of repair or maintenance of any Unit, or component thereof, or repair, maintenance or replacement of personal property within a Unit or Limited Common Element, or improvements made by Unit Owners hereafter.

Section 2. Individual Responsibility. Each Unit Owner shall repair and maintain the Unit or Units, and all components thereof, owned by that Unit Owner, improvements made by that Unit Owner, and perform cleaning and housekeeping with respect to Limited Common Elements appurtenant to that Unit Owner's Unit. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, this repair and maintenance responsibility of a Unit Owner shall include repair, maintenance, and replacement of all windows, screens, and doors, including the frames, sashes, and jambs, and the hardware therefor, and water, electric, gas, and other utility lines that service the Unit Owner's Unit and that are accessible from the Unit Owner's Unit or the Common Elements. In the event a Unit Owner shall fail to make a repair or perform maintenance required of that Unit Owner, or in the event the need for maintenance or repair of any part of any Unit or part of any of the Common Elements or Limited Common Elements is caused by the negligent or intentional act of any Unit Owner or Occupant or is as a result of the failure of any Unit Owner or that Unit Owner's predecessors in title to timely pursue to conclusion a claim under any warranty, express, implied, or imposed by law, the Condominium Association may perform the same, and if the cost of such repair or maintenance is not covered by insurance, whether because of a deductible or otherwise, the cost thereof shall constitute a Special Individual Unit Assessment, on the Unit owned by that Unit Owner and on that Unit Owner. The determination that such maintenance or repair is necessary, or has been so caused, shall be made by the Board, in its sole discretion.

ARTICLE X

UTILITY SERVICES

Each Unit Owner, by acceptance of a deed to a Unit, agrees to pay for utility services separately metered (or submetered) or separately charged to that Unit by the utility company, the Board, or a third party retained by the Board to that Unit, and to reimburse the Condominium Association for that Unit Owner's Unit's share of any utility cost that the Board, or its designee, reasonably determines is attributable to use by that Unit Owner's Unit. All other utility costs shall be common expenses and paid by the Condominium Association.

ARTICLE XI

INSURANCE; LOSSES

Section 1. Special Broad Form Casualty Insurance. Subject to the provisions relating to insurance deductibles set forth in Article IX of this Declaration, the Board shall have the authority to and shall obtain insurance for all buildings, structures, fixtures and equipment, and common personal property and supplies now or at any time hereafter constituting a part of the Common Elements, the Limited Common Elements, or common property of the Condominium Association, against loss or damage by fire, lightning, and such other perils as are ordinarily insured against under "special form" policies, or, if not available, or not available at competitive rates, a policy that includes the "broad form" covered causes of loss, in amounts at all times sufficient to prevent the Unit Owners from becoming co-insurers under the terms of any applicable coinsurance clause or provision and not less than one hundred percent (100%) of the current insurable replacement cost of such items (exclusive of land, foundations, footings, excavations, and other items normally excluded from coverage). This insurance shall also:

(a) provide for coverage of interior walls, windows, and doors, and the frames, sashes, jambs, and hardware therefor, even though these improvements may be parts of Units;

(b) provide coverage for built-in or installed improvements, fixtures, and equipment that are part of a Unit;

(c) have (i) an agreed amount and inflation guard endorsement, when that can be obtained, (ii) building ordinance or law endorsement, if any building, zoning, or land-use law will result in loss or damage, increased cost of repairs or reconstruction, or additional demolition and removal costs, providing for contingent liability from the operation of building laws, demolition costs, and increased costs of construction; and, (iii) when applicable, a steam boiler and machinery coverage endorsement, which provides that the insurer's minimum liability per accident at least equals the lesser of two million dollars or the insurable value of the building or buildings housing the boiler or machinery (or a separate stand-alone boiler and machinery coverage policy);

(d) provide that no assessment may be made against a first mortgage lender, or its insurer or guarantor, and that any assessment under such policy made against others may not become a lien on a Unit and its appurtenant interests superior to a first mortgage;

(e) be written in the name of the Condominium Association for the use and benefit of the Unit Owners, or its authorized representative, including any insurance trustee with whom the Condominium Association has entered into an insurance trust agreement, or any successor to such trustee, for the use and benefit of the individual Unit Owners;

(f) contain or have attached the standard mortgagee clause commonly accepted by institutional first mortgage holders, insurers, and guarantors, which (i) must provide that the carrier shall notify the named insured and each first mortgagee named in the mortgage clause at least ten days in advance of the effective date of any reduction in, cancellation of, or substantial change in the policy, and (ii) must be endorsed to provide that any loss shall be paid to the Condominium Association (or its insurance trustee), as a trustee for each Unit Owner and each such Unit Owner's mortgagee, and, unless otherwise prohibited by a nationally recognized institutional first mortgage holder, insurer, or guarantor, to the holders of first mortgages on Units;

(g) have a deductible amount no greater than five percent (5%) of the policy face amount;

(h) be paid for by the Condominium Association as a common expense;

(i) contain a waiver of the transfer of recovery rights by the carrier against the Condominium Association, its officers and Directors, and all Unit Owners;

(j) provide that the insurance shall not be prejudiced by any acts or omissions of individual Unit Owners who are not under the control of the Condominium Association; and

(k) be primary, even if a Unit Owner has other insurance that covers the same loss.

Section 2. Liability Insurance. The Condominium Association shall obtain and thereafter maintain, at the Condominium Association's cost and as a common expense, a policy of commercial/general liability insurance covering all of the Common Elements. Limited Common Elements, public ways, and any other areas under the Condominium Association's supervision, and Units, if any, owned by the Condominium Association, even if leased to others, insuring the Condominium Association, the Directors, and the Unit Owners and Occupants, with such limits as the Board may determine, but no less than the greater of (a) the amounts generally required by institutional first mortgage holders, insurers, and guarantors for projects similar in construction, location and use, and (b) one million dollars arising out of a single occurrence. This insurance shall contain a "severability of interest" provision, or, if it does not, an endorsement that shall preclude the insurer from denying the claim of a Unit Owner because of negligent acts of the Condominium Association, the Board, Unit Owners, or Occupants, and shall include, without limitation, coverage for legal liability of the insureds for property damage, bodily injuries and deaths of persons resulting from the operation, maintenance or use of the Common Elements, and legal liability arising out of lawsuits related to employment contracts in which the Condominium Association is a party. Each such policy must provide that it may not be canceled or substantially modified, by any party, without at least ten days prior written notice to the Condominium Association and to each holder of a first mortgage on a Unit.

Section 3. Fidelity Coverage. The Board shall obtain, or cause to be obtained, and thereafter maintain, at the Condominium Association's cost and as a common expense, blanket fidelity, crime, or dishonesty insurance coverage or a fidelity bond for any person who controls or disburses Condominium Association funds including, but not limited to, any Director, officer, employee, agent, volunteer, bookkeeper, management company principal or employee, or other individual who has the authority or access to sign checks, conduct electronic transfers, or otherwise withdraw funds from any Condominium Association account or deposit. The fidelity bond or policy shall name the Condominium Association as the named insured, be for the sole benefit and the property of the Condominium Association, protect the Condominium Association against theft, embezzlement, misappropriation, or any other unauthorized taking or loss of Condominium Association funds, and be written in an amount sufficient to protect the Condominium Association, which is in no event less than the greater of (a) an amount equal to the Condominium Association's reserve funds plus an amount equal to no less than the then-current amount of three months' Assessments on all Units, and (b) the maximum amount that will be in the custody of the Condominium Association or its managing agent at any time while the bond or policy is in force. In connection with such coverage, the policy or bond shall include within the definition of "employee", the manager or the managing agent of the Condominium Association or shall provide for an appropriate endorsement to the bond or policy to cover the manager or managing agent and shall provide for an appropriate endorsement to cover any persons who serve without compensation if the bond or policy would not otherwise cover volunteers. The bond or policy shall provide that it shall not be canceled or substantially modified by the insurance carrier or bond issuer (including cancellation for non-payment of premium) without the carrier or issuer providing at least ten (10) days prior written notice to the Condominium Association's president or managing agent, and any insurance trustee, and any servicer on behalf of any holder, guarantor or insurer of any mortgage on a Unit who requires such rights. Any manager or managing agent who handles funds of the Condominium Association may be required to maintain a fidelity bond or policy providing coverage of no less than that required of the Condominium Association, which bond or policy names the Condominium Association as an additional obligee or obligee.

Section 4. Hazard Insurance Carrier. Each policy of hazard insurance obtained pursuant hereto shall be obtained from an insurance company authorized to write such insurance in the State of Ohio which has a "B" or better general policyholder's rating or a "6" or better financial performance index rating in Best's Insurance Reports, an "A" or better general policyholder's rating and a financial size category of "VIII" or better in Best's Insurance Reports—International Edition, an "A" or better rating in Demotech's Hazard Insurance Financial Stability Ratings, a "BBBq" qualified solvency ratio or a "BBB" or better claims-paying ability rating in Standard and Poor's Insurer Solvency Review, or a "BBB" or better claims-paying ability rating in Standard and Poor's International Confidential Rating Service. Insurance issued by a carrier that does not meet the foregoing rating requirements will be acceptable if the carrier is covered by reinsurance with a company that meets either one of the A.M. Best general policyholder's ratings or one of the Standard and Poor's claims-paying ability ratings mentioned above.

Section 5. Flood Insurance. In the event that any part of the improvements on the Condominium Property is located in a "Special Flood Hazard Area", which is designated as A, AE, AH, AO, AR, A1-30, A-99, V, VE, VI-30, or VO on a Flood Insurance Rate Map, the Condominium Association shall obtain and maintain a "master" or "blanket" policy of flood insurance. The flood insurance policy shall cover the Common Element buildings and any other common property but generally need not cover individual Units. The premiums shall be paid as a common expense. The amount of coverage, if required, should be at least equal to the lesser of (a) one hundred percent (100%) of the insurable value of each insured building (including all Common Elements and property) or (b) the maximum coverage available under the applicable National Flood Insurance Program. The maximum deductible amount for policies covering the Common Elements shall be the lesser of (a) $5,000 or (b) one percent (1%) of the policy's face amount.

Section 6. Other Condominium Association Insurance. In addition, the Board may purchase and maintain, at the Condominium Association's cost and as a common expense, contractual liability insurance, directors and officers liability insurance, cybersecurity insurance, and such other insurance as the Board may determine.

Section 7. Insurance Representative; Power of Attorney. There may be named under any policy obtained by the Condominium Association, as an insured on behalf of the Condominium Association, its authorized representative, including any trustee with whom the Condominium Association may enter into any insurance trust agreement, or any successor to such trustee, who shall have exclusive authority to negotiate losses under any such policy. Each Unit Owner, by acceptance of a deed to a Unit, irrevocably appoints the Condominium Association or such designated representative, or such successor, as attorney-in-fact for the purpose of purchasing and maintaining such insurance, including the collection and appropriate disposition of the proceeds thereof; the negotiation of losses and execution of releases of liability; the execution of all documents; and the performance of all other acts necessary to accomplish such purpose. The Condominium Association, or such designated representative, or such successor, shall receive, hold or otherwise properly dispose of any proceeds of insurance, in trust, for Unit Owners and their first mortgage holders, as their interests may appear. This power is for the benefit of each and every Unit Owner, and their respective first mortgage holders, the Condominium Association, and the Condominium, runs with the land, and is coupled with an interest.

Section 8. Unit Owners' Insurance. Any Unit Owner or Occupant may carry such insurance in addition to that provided by the Condominium Association pursuant hereto as that Unit Owner or Occupant may determine, subject to the provisions hereof, and provided that no Unit Owner or Occupant may at any time purchase individual policies of insurance against loss by fire or other casualty covered by the insurance carried pursuant hereto by the Condominium Association. In the event any Unit Owner or Occupant violates this provision, any diminution in insurance proceeds resulting from the existence of such other insurance shall be chargeable to the Unit Owner who acquired or whose Occupant acquired such other insurance, who shall be liable to the Condominium Association to the extent of any diminution and/or loss of proceeds. Without limiting the foregoing, a Unit Owner or Occupant may obtain insurance against liability for events occurring within a Unit, losses with respect to personal property and furnishings, and losses to improvements owned by the Unit Owner or Occupant, provided that if the Condominium Association obtains insurance for permanent improvements and built-in fixtures and equipment, then the insurance obtained by the Unit Owner with respect to improvements within the Unit shall be limited to the type and nature of coverage commonly referred to as "tenants' improvements and betterments". All such insurance separately carried shall contain a waiver of subrogation rights by the carrier as to the Condominium Association, its officers and Directors, and all other Unit Owners and Occupants.

Section 9. Sufficient Insurance. In the event the improvements forming a part of the Common Elements or any portion thereof shall suffer damage or destruction from any cause or peril insured against by a policy or policies obtained by the Condominium Association and the proceeds of any policy or policies insuring against such loss or damage and payable by reason thereof shall be sufficient to pay the cost of repair or restoration or reconstruction, then such repair, restoration or reconstruction shall be undertaken by the Condominium Association and the insurance proceeds shall be used in payment therefor; provided, however, that in the event that within sixty (60) days after such damage or destruction the Unit Owners and Eligible Mortgagees, if they are entitled to do so pursuant to the provisions of this Declaration, shall elect to terminate the Condominium, then such repair, restoration or reconstruction shall not be undertaken.

Section 10. Insufficient Insurance. In the event the improvements forming a part of the Common Elements or any portion thereof shall suffer damage or destruction from any cause or peril which is not insured against by a policy or policies obtained by the Condominium Association, or, if insured against, the insurance proceeds from which shall not be sufficient to pay the cost of repair, restoration or reconstruction, then, unless the Unit Owners and Mortgagees or Eligible Mortgagees, if they are entitled to do so pursuant to the provisions of this Declaration, shall elect within sixty (60) days after such damage or destruction not to make such repair, restoration or reconstruction, the Condominium Association shall make repairs, restoration or reconstruction of the Common Elements so damaged or destroyed at the expense (to the extent not covered by insurance) of all Unit Owners in proportion to their respective undivided interests in the Common Elements. Should any Unit Owner refuse or fail after reasonable notice to pay that Unit Owner's share of such cost in excess of available insurance proceeds, the amount so advanced by the Condominium Association shall be assessed against the Unit of such Unit Owner, and that Assessment shall have the same force and effect, and, if not paid, may be enforced in the same manner as provided in the Declaration for the nonpayment of Assessments.

Section 11. Lender Requirements. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Article, the Condominium Association shall at all times maintain hazard insurance, liability insurance, and fidelity insurance coverage conforming with the requirements then governing the making of a first mortgage loan, or the purchase, guaranty, or insurance of first mortgages, by national institutional lenders, guarantors or insurers of first mortgage loans on condominium units.

ARTICLE XII

DAMAGE RESTORATION; TERMINATION

Section 1. Restoration of Substantial Damage or Destruction. In the event of substantial damage to or destruction of all Units in a residential building, or the taking of one or more Units in any condemnation or eminent domain proceedings, the Condominium Association shall promptly restore or replace the same, unless an election is made not to do so, as hereinafter provided.

Section 2. Election Not to Restore; Termination. The Condominium Association may, with the consent of Unit Owners entitled to exercise not less than eighty percent (80%) of the voting power of Unit Owners, and the consent of Mortgagees whose mortgages represent seventy-five percent (75%) or more of Units subject to mortgages held by Mortgagees, both given within sixty (60) days after damage or destruction, determine not to repair or restore the damage or destruction, and to terminate the Condominium. In any such an event, all of the Condominium Property shall be sold as upon partition. In the event of such an election not to repair or restore substantial damage or destruction or reconstruct such Unit or Units, the net proceeds of insurance paid by reason of such damage or destruction, or the net amount of any award or proceeds of settlement arising from such proceedings, together with the proceeds received from the sale as upon partition, or in the case of an election otherwise to terminate the Condominium, the net proceeds from the partition sale, shall be distributed among the Unit Owners, and the holders of their respective first mortgage liens, (as their interests may appear), in the proportions of their undivided interests in the Common Elements.

ARTICLE XIII

CONDEMNATION

Section 1. Standing. Except as hereinafter provided, the Condominium Association, or its designated representative, or authorized successor, as trustee, shall represent the Unit Owners in any condemnation or eminent domain proceedings or in negotiations, settlements, and agreements with the condemning authority for acquisition of all or any part of the Condominium Property, and shall have the sole and exclusive right to settle losses with the condemning authority and to receive the award or proceeds of settlement, for the use and benefit of the Unit Owners and their mortgagees as their interests may appear. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that a Unit Owner may lawfully separately pursue and realize upon a claim for incidental and consequential losses or damage to that Unit Owner resulting from a taking under the power of eminent domain, such as for relocation and moving expenses, loss of favorable mortgage terms, and other such individual incidental or consequential losses, that Unit Owner may, at that Unit Owner's election, separately pursue such claim, provided, that the pursuing of the same, or the realization of an award thereof, neither jeopardizes, in any way, an action by the Condominium Association to recoup the losses incurred by it, or any other Unit Owner, or the direct loss with respect to the Unit itself, or with regard to the usability thereof, nor diminishes any award for any such loss.

Section 2. Use of Proceeds. The award or proceeds of settlement in any actual or threatened condemnation or eminent domain proceedings, after reduction by the costs, if any, incurred in obtaining the same, shall be applied first to the cost of restoring or replacing all damaged or taken improvements on the remaining Condominium Property in accordance with the Drawings, or in accordance with any new plans and specifications therefor approved by Unit Owners exercising no less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the voting power of Unit Owners, and the consent of Eligible Mortgagees hereinafter provided.

Section 3. Insufficient Proceeds. If the award or proceeds are insufficient for such purpose, the excess cost shall be paid by the Condominium Association and, to the extent funds of the Condominium Association are insufficient therefor, in the judgment of the Board, such excess cost shall be a common expense and assessed among the Units in the same manner as Special Assessments for Capital Improvements are assessed. Except as hereinafter provided, the balance of any such award or proceeds of settlement, if there is an excess, shall be allocated and disbursed to the Unit Owners, and their first mortgagees, as their interests may appear, in proportion to the relative undivided interests of the Units in the Common Elements.

Section 4. Non-Restorable Unit. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that as a result of any such taking, and consequent restoration or replacement, any Unit could not reasonably be restored to a condition comparable to that which existed prior to the taking, or could not be replaced, prior to the allocation and disbursement of any sum to any other Unit Owner or that Unit Owner's mortgagee, there shall be allocated and disbursed from such award or proceeds, to each Unit Owner whose Unit cannot be so restored or replaced, and that Unit Owner's respective first mortgagee, as their interests may appear, such amount as is equal to the then fair market value of the Unit that cannot be so restored or replaced. Thereupon, such Unit or Units, and the Unit Owners thereof, shall be immediately and automatically divested of any interest in the Condominium, the Condominium Property, and the Condominium Association, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, divestment of an undivided interest, vote, membership in the Condominium Association, and liability for common expenses. All such rights and interests shall be reallocated among all other Units and Unit Owners in the same relative proportions as those rights and interests were prior to such taking. To illustrate, upon a Unit being divested from the Condominium, (a) the voting right of that Unit will be equally allocated among all other Units, and their owners, since the Unit Owners of each Unit prior thereto had an equal vote, and (b) the undivided interest of that Unit will be reallocated among all other Units in the proportions of their relative undivided interests prior to such taking.

Section 5. Power of Attorney. Each Unit Owner, by acceptance of a deed to a Unit, appoints the Condominium Association, or its designated representative, as that Unit Owner's attorney-in-fact to represent that Unit Owner, settle losses, receive and utilize the award or proceeds of settlement, and do all things necessary or desirable for such attorney-in-fact to exercise the rights and fulfill the responsibilities of the Condominium Association set forth in this Article with respect to condemnation or eminent domain proceedings. This power is for the benefit of each and every Unit Owner, each holder of a first mortgage on a Unit, the Condominium Association, and the real estate to which it is applicable, runs with the land, is coupled with an interest, and is irrevocable.

ARTICLE XIV

GRANTS AND RESERVATIONS OF RIGHTS AND EASEMENTS

Section 1. Easements of Enjoyment; Limitations. Every Unit Owner shall have a right and easement of enjoyment in, over, and upon the Common Elements and an unrestricted right of access to and from that Unit Owner's Unit, and an easement for utilities serving that Unit, subject to the right of the Board to make reasonable rules and regulations concerning the use and management of the Common Elements and the Limited Common Elements, provided that no such rule or regulation shall limit or prohibit the right of ingress and egress to a Unit, or any part thereof, or to that Unit's parking facilities. Each Unit Owner shall be deemed to have delegated that Unit Owner's right of enjoyment to the Common Elements and to ingress and egress to the Occupants of that Unit Owner's Unit.

Section 2. Easements for Encroachments. Each Unit and the Common Elements and Limited Common Elements shall be subject to and benefited by easements for encroachments on or by any other Unit and upon the Common Elements and Limited Common Elements created or arising by reason of overhangs; or by reason of deviations in construction, reconstruction, repair, shifting, settlement, or other movement of any portion of the improvements; or by reason of errors on the Drawings. Valid easements for these encroachments and for the maintenance of same, as long as the physical boundaries of the Units after the construction, reconstruction, repairs, etc., will be in substantial accord with the description of those boundaries that appears herein or on the Drawings, shall and do exist so long as the encroachments remain.

Section 3. Easements Reserved to Declarant. Non-exclusive easements are hereby reserved to Declarant, its successors and assigns, over and upon the Common Elements and Limited Common Elements as follows:

(a) for the initial sales and expansion period of the Condominium, to access to and for the purpose of completing improvements for which provision is made in this Declaration, provided that such right of access shall be to the extent, but only to the extent, that access thereto is not otherwise reasonably available;

(b) for the periods provided for warranties hereunder or by law, for purposes of making repairs required pursuant to those warranties or pursuant to contracts of sale made with Unit purchasers; and

(c) for the initial sales and rental period, to maintain and utilize one or more Units and appurtenances thereto, and/or a portion or portions of the Common Elements, for sales and management offices and for storage and maintenance, and model Units, parking areas for sales and rental purposes, and advertising signs.

In addition, non-exclusive perpetual and permanent easements are hereby reserved to Declarant, its successors and assigns, and also granted to the future owners and occupants of all or any portion of the property identified as Additional Property in this Declaration (irrespective of whether that property is ever made part of the Condominium or continues to be identified or classified as Additional Property) and their respective heirs, successors, and assigns, for Declarant's benefit, the benefit of Declarant's successors and assigns, and for the benefit of future owners and occupants of the area into which the Condominium may be expanded as hereinafter described (the "Additional Property"), for pedestrian and vehicular access in, on, over and upon roadways and walkways now or hereafter within the Condominium Property for ingress and egress to and from all or any portion of the Additional Property and a public street, and to extend the same onto the Additional Property. Additionally, Declarant, for itself and its successors and assigns, hereby reserves an easement in, over, under, upon, and across the Common Elements to reach, and the right to extend and tie into, utility lines and improvements in the Common Elements, as permitted by public authority and the utility company involved, and to extend such utility lines and improvements into and/or upon the Additional Property to service the same. These easements and rights shall continue in effect whether or not all of the Additional Property, or any part thereof, is added to the Condominium or not or continues to be identified or classified as Additional Property.

The rights and easements reserved pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be exercised and utilized, as the case may be, in a reasonable manner, and in such way as not to unreasonably interfere with the operation of the Condominium Association and the rights of owners and Occupants of Units.

Section 4. Easements for Proper Operations. Easements to the Condominium Association shall exist upon, over, and under all of the Condominium Property for ingress to and egress from, and the installation, replacing, repairing, and maintaining of, all utilities, including, but not limited to water, sewer, gas, telephone, electricity, security systems, master television antennas, and cable television, as well as the road system and all walkways, and for all other purposes necessary for the proper operation of the Condominium Property. By these easements, it shall be expressly permissible for the Condominium Association to grant to the appropriate public authorities and/or the providing companies and contractors permission to construct and maintain the necessary appurtenances and improvements on, above, across, and under the Condominium Property, so long as such appurtenances and improvements do not unreasonably interfere with the use and enjoyment of the Condominium Property. Should any public authority or other company furnishing a service request a specific easement, permit, or license, the Board shall have the right to grant such easement, permit, or license without conflicting with the terms of the Condominium Organizational Documents. In addition, in the event the Board determines that the grant of easement rights to others is in the best interests of the Condominium Association, the Condominium Association shall have the right to grant the same, provided that use of the same would not, in the sole judgment of the Board, unreasonably interfere with the use and enjoyment of the Condominium Property by Unit Owners and Occupants.

Section 5. Easement for Support. Every portion of a building or utility line or any improvement on any portion of the Condominium Property contributing to the support of another building, utility line, or improvement on another portion of the Condominium Property shall be burdened with an easement of support for the benefit of all other such buildings, utility lines, improvements and other portions of the Condominium Property.

Section 6. Easement for Services. Non-exclusive easements are hereby granted to all police, firefighters, ambulance operators, mail carriers, delivery persons, garbage and trash removal personnel, and all similar persons, and to the local governmental authorities and the Condominium Association, but not to the public in general, to enter upon the Common Elements in the performance of their duties, subject to such reasonable rules and regulations as the Board may establish from time to time.

Section 7. Entry for Repair, Maintenance, and Restoration. The Condominium Association shall have a right of entry and access to, over, upon, and through all of the Condominium Property, including each Unit and the Limited Common Elements, to enable the Condominium Association to perform its obligations, rights, and duties pursuant to this Declaration or applicable law with regard to mowing, maintenance, repair, restoration and/or servicing of any items, things or areas of or in the Condominium Property. In the event of an emergency, the Condominium Association's right of entry to a Unit and its appurtenant Limited Common Elements may be exercised without notice; otherwise, the Condominium Association shall give the Unit Owners or Occupants of a Unit no less than twenty-four (24) hours advance notice prior to entering a Unit or its appurtenant Limited Common Elements.

Section 8. Power of Attorney. Each Unit Owner, by acceptance of a deed to a Unit, appoints the Condominium Association, or its designated representative, as that Unit Owner's attorney-in-fact to represent that Unit Owner, settle losses, receive and utilize the award or proceeds of settlement involving the Common Elements, and do all things necessary or desirable for such attorney-in-fact to exercise the rights and fulfill the responsibilities of the Condominium Association set forth in this Article with respect to condemnation or eminent domain proceedings involving Common Elements. This power is for the benefit of each and every Unit Owner, each holder of a first mortgage on a Unit, the Condominium Association, and the real estate to which it is applicable, runs with the land, is coupled with an interest, and is irrevocable.

Section 9. General. Unless specifically limited herein otherwise, the foregoing easements shall run with the land and pass with the title to the benefited properties, shall be appurtenant to the properties benefited thereby, shall be enforceable by the owners of the properties benefited thereby, and shall be perpetual. The easements and grants provided in the Declaration shall in no way affect any other recorded grant or easement. Failure to refer specifically to any or all of the easements and/or rights described in this Declaration in any deed of conveyance or in any mortgage or other evidence of obligation shall not defeat or constitute an intention not to reserve said rights or easements, but the same shall be deemed conveyed or encumbered, as the case may be, along with the Unit.

ARTICLE XV

ASSESSMENTS AND ASSESSMENT LIENS; RESERVE FUNDS

Section 1. Types of Assessments. Declarant, for each Unit within the Condominium, hereby covenants and agrees, and each Unit Owner by acceptance of a deed to a Unit (whether or not it shall be so expressed in such deed) is deemed to covenant and agree, to pay to the Condominium Association: (a) Operating Assessments, (b) Special Assessments for Capital Improvements, and (c) Special Individual Unit Assessments, all of such Assessments to be established and collected as hereinafter provided.

Section 2. Purpose of Assessments. The Assessments levied by the Condominium Association shall be used exclusively to promote and provide for the health, safety, and welfare of Unit Owners and Occupants and the best interests of the Condominium Property.

Section 3. Elements-Apportionment: Due Dates.

(a) Operating Assessments.

(i) Prior to the time any Unit Owner is to be charged Assessments by the Condominium Association, the Board shall establish for the remainder of the Condominium Association's fiscal year, and prior to the beginning of each fiscal year of the Condominium Association thereafter, the Board shall estimate for the next fiscal year, and, in each case, prorate among all Units and their Unit Owners on the basis of the undivided interest of each Unit in the Common Elements, common expenses of the Condominium Association, consisting of the following:

a. that period's estimated cost of the maintenance, repair, and other services to be provided by the Condominium Association, including but not limited to the repair and maintenance of the Common Elements as provided in Section 1 of Article IX of this Declaration;

b. that period's estimated costs for insurance and bond premiums to be provided and paid for by the Condominium Association;

c. that period's estimated costs for utility services that are not separately metered or charged to Unit Owners;

d. the estimated amount desired to be collected to maintain a working capital reserve fund, to assure the availability of funds for normal operations of the Condominium Association, in an amount deemed adequate by the Board, but in no event less than an amount equal to two months' currently estimated Assessments on all Units;

e. unless waived annually in writing by Unit Owners exercising not less than a majority of the voting power of the Unit Owners, an amount deemed adequate by the Board in its sole and unfettered discretion to establish or augment an existing reserve fund in an amount reasonably adequate to repair and replace major capital items in the normal course of operations without the necessity of Special Assessments; and

f. that period's estimated costs for the operation, management, and administration of the Condominium Association, including, but not limited to, fees for property management, fees for legal and accounting services, costs of mailing, postage, supplies, and materials for operating the Condominium Association, and the salaries, wages, payroll charges, and other costs to perform these services, and any other costs constituting common expenses not otherwise herein specifically excluded.

(ii) The Board shall thereupon allocate to each Unit that Unit's share of all of these items, prorated in accordance with each respective Unit's undivided interest in the Common Elements, and thereby establish the Operating Assessment for each separate Unit. For administrative convenience, any such Assessment may be rounded so that monthly installments will be in whole dollars.

(iii) The Operating Assessment shall be payable in advance, in equal monthly installments, provided that nothing contained herein shall prohibit any Unit Owner from prepaying Assessments in annual, semiannual, or quarterly increments. The due dates of any such installments shall be established by the Board, or, if it fails to do so, an equal monthly pro rata share of the Operating Assessment for a Unit shall be due the first day of each month.

(iv) If the amounts so collected are, at any time, insufficient to meet all obligations for which those funds are to be used, the deficiency shall be assessed by the Board among the Units and their owners on the same basis as heretofore set forth, provided, that if the Condominium Association incurs common expenses prior to the time the Condominium Association commences to levy Assessments against Units, Declarant shall pay the same (subject to its right, if any, to reimbursement from Unit purchasers contained in individual contracts for the sale of a Unit or Units or, if not, from the Condominium Association).

(v) If Operating Assessments collected in the Condominium Association's fiscal year are in excess of the funds necessary to meet the anticipated expenses for which the same have been collected, the excess shall be retained as reserves or as reductions in future Assessments, as determined by the Board, in its sole discretion, and shall in no event be deemed profits nor available, except on dissolution of the Condominium Association, for distribution to Unit Owners, and each Unit Owner by virtue of acceptance of a deed to a Unit consents to the same and grants to the Board an irrevocable power of attorney and proxy to approve and authorize the retention of any excess as reserves or reductions in current or future Assessments.

(b) Special Assessments for Capital Improvements.

(i) In addition to Operating Assessments, the Board may levy, at any time, Special Assessments for Capital Improvements to construct, reconstruct or replace capital improvements on the Common Elements to the extent that reserves therefor are insufficient, provided that new capital improvements not replacing existing improvements (except new capital improvements required to comply with applicable law or governmental regulation, or to correct any deficiency or defect creating a safety or health hazard to Occupants) shall not be constructed nor funds assessed therefor, if the cost thereof in any fiscal year would exceed an amount equal to five percent (5%) or more of that fiscal year's budget, without the prior consent of Unit Owners exercising not less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the voting power of Unit Owners and the consent of Eligible Mortgagees hereinafter provided.

(ii) Each Special Assessment for Capital Improvements shall be prorated among all Units and their Owners in proportion to the respective undivided interests of the Units in the Common Elements and shall become due and payable on such date or dates as the Board determines following written notice to the Unit Owners, which may be in the form of electronic mail to an electronic mail address previously provided by the Unit Owner in writing.

(c) Special Individual Unit Assessments. Subject to the applicable provisions of the Bylaws regarding procedures with respect thereto, the Board may levy Special Individual Unit Assessments against an individual Unit, or Units, and the Unit Owner or Unit Owners thereof, to reimburse the Condominium Association for those costs incurred in connection with that Unit or Units properly chargeable by the terms of the Condominium Organizational Documents or the rules of the Condominium Association to a particular Unit (such as, but not limited to, the cost of making repairs that are the responsibility of a Unit Owner, the cost to reimburse the Condominium Association for that Unit Owner's Unit's share of any utility cost that the Board, or its designee, reasonably determines is attributable to that Unit Owner's Unit, the portion of the cost of casualty and/or liability insurance provided by the Condominium Association that the Board determines is attributable to a particular use of a Unit or course of conduct by a Unit Owner or Occupant of that Unit Owner's Unit, returned check charges, and a Unit Owner's interest, late charges, collection costs, and enforcement, and arbitration charges properly chargeable to a Unit and its Unit Owners pursuant hereto). Each Special Individual Unit Assessment shall become due and payable on such date as the Board determines and gives written notice to the Unit Owners subject thereto, which may be in the form of electronic mail to an electronic mail address previously provided by the Unit Owner in writing.

Section 4. Effective Date of Assessment. Any Assessment created pursuant hereto shall be effective, provided it is created as provided herein, if written notice of the amount thereof is sent by the Board to the Unit Owner subject thereto at least ten (10) days prior to the due date thereof, or if to be paid in installments, the due date of the first installment thereof. Written notice mailed or delivered to a Unit Owner's or Unit Owners' Unit shall constitute notice to that or those Unit Owners unless the Unit Owner or Unit Owners have delivered written notice to the Board of a different address for such notices, in which event the mailing of the same to that last designated address shall constitute notice to that Unit Owner or those Unit Owners. In addition, if a Unit Owner has previously provided the Condominium Association with an electronic mail address, written notice may be in the form of electronic mail sent to that electronic mail address.

Section 5. Effect of Nonpayment of Assessment; Remedies of the Condominium Association.

(a) If any Assessment, any portion of any Assessment, or any installment or portion of any installment of any Assessment is not paid within at least ten (10) days after the same is due, the entire unpaid balance of the Assessment shall immediately become due and payable, without demand or notice, unless the Board, in its sole discretion, determines not to accelerate the installments.

(b) If any Assessment, any portion of any Assessment, or any installment or portion of any installment of any Assessment is not paid within at least ten (10) days after the same is due, the Board, at its option, and without demand or notice, may (i) charge interest on the entire unpaid balance (including the accelerated portion thereof) at such rate as the Board, from time to time, establishes by rule; or if the Board fails to establish a rate by rule, at the rate of eight percent (8%) per annum or the highest rate permitted by law, (ii) charge a reasonable, uniform, late fee, as established from time to time by the Board, by rule, and (iii) charge the costs of collection, including, without limitation, attorneys' fees and other out-of-pocket expenses.

(c) Assessments of every type, together with interest, late fees, and costs, including attorneys' fees, shall be a charge in favor of the Condominium Association upon the Unit against which each such Assessment is made.

(d) Payments made by a Unit Owner for Assessments shall be applied in the following priority: (i) to interest accrued on the delinquent Assessment(s), or installments or portions of installments thereof; (ii) to administrative late fees charged with respect to the delinquency; (iii) to reimburse the Condominium Association for enforcement charges and collection costs, including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees and paralegal fees incurred by the Condominium Association in connection with the delinquency; and (iv) to the delinquent Assessment or installment or portion thereof.

(e) At any time after any Assessment, any portion of any Assessment, or any installment of any Assessment, or any portion of any installment of any Assessment levied pursuant hereto remains unpaid for ten (10) or more days after the same has become due and payable, a certificate of lien for all or any portion of the unpaid balance of that Assessment, including all future installments thereof, interest, late fees, collection costs, and expenses, including attorneys' fees, and court costs and filing fees ("collection costs"), may be filed with the Franklin County Recorder, pursuant to authorization given by the Board. The certificate shall contain a description or other sufficient legal identification of the Unit against which the lien exists, the name or names of the record Unit Owner or Unit Owners thereof, and the amount of the unpaid portion of the Assessments and charges, and shall be signed by the president or other designated representative of the Condominium Association.

(f) The lien provided for herein shall become effective from the time a certificate of lien or renewal certificate was duly filed therefor and shall be a continuing lien for a period of five (5) years unless sooner released or satisfied in the same manner provided by law in the State of Ohio for the release and satisfaction of mortgages on real property, or discharged by the final judgment or order of a court in an action brought to discharge the lien.

(g) Any Unit Owner who believes that an Assessment chargeable to that Unit Owner's Unit (for which the Condominium Association has filed a certificate of lien) has been improperly charged against that Unit may bring an action in the Court of Common Pleas of Franklin County for the discharge of that lien. In any such action, if it is finally determined that all or a portion of the Assessment has been improperly charged to that Unit and its Unit Owners, the Court shall make such order as is just, which may provide for a discharge of record of all or a portion of that lien.

(h) Each such Assessment, together with collection costs (including attorneys' fees,) shall also be the joint and several personal obligation of the Unit Owners who owned the Unit at the time when the Assessment fell due. The obligation for delinquent Assessments, interest, late charges, and costs for periods preceding transfer of a Unit shall not be the personal obligation of that or those Unit Owner's or Unit Owners' successors in title unless expressly assumed by the successors, or required by applicable law, provided, however, that the right of the Condominium Association to a lien against that Unit, or to foreclose any lien thereon for these delinquent Assessments, interest, late charges, and costs, shall not be impaired or abridged by reason of the transfer, but shall continue unaffected thereby, except as provided in Section 6 of this Article.

(i) The Condominium Association, as authorized by the Board, may file a lien or liens to secure payment of Assessments and/or collection costs (including attorneys' fees), bring or join in an action at law against the Unit Owner or Unit Owners personally obligated to pay the same, and/or bring or join in an action to foreclose a lien, or any one or more of these. In any foreclosure action, the Unit Owner or Unit Owners affected shall be required to pay a reasonable rental for that Unit during the pendency of such action. In any foreclosure action involving a Unit or Units, the Condominium Association shall be entitled to become a purchaser at the foreclosure sale. In any action, interest and all costs of such action (including attorneys' fees) shall be added to the amount of any such Assessment to the extent permitted by Ohio law.

(j) No claim of the Condominium Association for Assessments and charges, whether in a collection action, foreclosure action, or otherwise, shall be subject to setoffs, offsets, counterclaims, or cross-claim, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, claims that the Condominium Association has failed to provide the Unit Owner with any service, goods, work, or materials, or failed in any other duty.

(k) No Unit Owner or Unit Owners may waive or otherwise escape liability for the Assessments provided for in this Declaration or applicable law by non-use of the Common Elements, or any part thereof, or by the abandonment of that Unit Owner's or those Unit Owners' Unit.

(l) Assessments shall run with the land, are necessary to continue the care, repair, and maintenance of Units and their undivided interests in the Condominium Property, and to continue to provide utility and other services, and, accordingly, Assessments accruing or becoming due during the pendency of bankruptcy proceedings shall constitute administrative expenses of the bankrupt estate.

Section 6. Subordination of the Lien to First Mortgages. The lien of the Assessments and charges provided for herein shall be subject and subordinate to the lien of any duly executed first mortgage on a Unit recorded prior to the date on which such lien of the Condominium Association arises, and any holder of such first mortgage which comes into possession of a Unit pursuant to the remedies provided in the mortgage, foreclosure of the mortgage, or deed or assignment in lieu of foreclosure, and any purchaser at a foreclosure sale, shall take the property free of any claims for unpaid installments of Assessments and charges against the mortgaged Unit which became due and payable prior, in the case of foreclosure, to the date of the sale, and, in all other cases, to the date legal title vested in the successor Unit Owner. The foregoing will not relieve any successor Unit Owner from the obligation for Assessments accruing thereafter. Notwithstanding the foregoing, rental payments a receiver collects during the pendency of a foreclosure action shall first be applied to the payment of the portion of common expenses chargeable to the Unit and its owners during the foreclosure action.

Section 7. Certificate Regarding Assessments. The Board shall, upon demand, for a reasonable charge, furnish a certificate signed by the president, treasurer, secretary, or other designated representative of the Condominium Association, setting forth whether the Assessments on a specified Unit have been paid. This certificate shall be conclusive evidence of payment of any Assessment therein stated to have been paid.

ARTICLE XVI

EXPANSIONS

Section 1. Reservation of Expansion Option. Declarant expressly reserves the option to expand the Condominium Property but only within the limitations, and subject to the terms set forth in this Article XVI.

Section 2. Limitations on Option. Declarant has no limitations on its option to expand the Condominium Property except as provided in this Article XVI, or elsewhere in this Declaration, and except as otherwise so expressly limited, has the sole right, power, and authority to expand the Condominium Property without the consent of any Unit Owner or Unit Owners, the Condominium Association, the Board, any Eligible Mortgagee, or any Mortgagee.

Section 3. Maximum Expansion Time. Except as hereinafter provided, Declarant's option to expand the Condominium Property shall expire and terminate at the end of seven years from the date this Declaration is filed for record. The foregoing notwithstanding, Declarant, with the consent of Unit Owners exercising not less than a majority of the voting power of Unit Owners other than Declarant, may extend Declarant's option to expand the Condominium Property for an additional seven years if Declarant exercises the right to so renew within six months prior to the expiration of that initial seven-year period. Declarant shall have the right to waive Declarant's option to expand at any time. There are no other circumstances that will terminate the option prior to the expiration of the time limit.

Section 4. Legal Descriptions. A legal description or descriptions of all of the property that is part of the Additional Property and that, through the exercise of Declarant's option, may be added to the Condominium Property by submission to the Condominium Act as part of this Condominium, is attached hereto and marked "Exhibit E" and made a part hereof by this reference.

Section 5. Composition of Portions Added. Neither all nor any portion of the Additional Property must be added to the Condominium Property, nor, if any of the Additional Property is added, shall it be required that a particular portion of the Additional Property must be added, provided that portions added meet all other requirements set forth in this Article XVI and provided, further, that all improvements a part of the Additional Property added to the Condominium Property shall be substantially completed prior to the addition. There are no limitations fixing the boundaries of portions added or regulating the order in which portions are added.

Section 6. Time for Adding Portions. Portions of the Additional Property may be added to the Condominium Property from time to time, and at different times, within the time limits previously described.

Section 7. Improvement Location Limitations. There are no established or defined limitations as to the location of any improvements that may be made on any portion of the Additional Property added to the Condominium Property except such limitations as may then be in effect by reason of the laws and lawful rules and regulations of the appropriate governmental bodies and authorities having jurisdiction.

Section 8. Maximum Number of Units. The maximum total number of Units that may be created on the Additional Property and added to the Condominium Property is one hundred forty-eight (148), permitting the Condominium to be expanded to include a maximum total of one hundred fifty-four (154) Units, provided that the foregoing shall neither limit nor restrict nor be so construed as to limit or restrict the number of dwelling units or other improvements that may be constructed on all or any portion of the Additional Property that is not added to the Condominium Property. Subject to the foregoing total maximum of Units that may be added to the Condominium Property, there is no limit as to the maximum number of Units per acre that may be created on any portion of the Additional Property added to the Condominium Property other than as may, from time to time, be imposed by law.

Section 9. Non-Residential Uses. No Units may be created on the Additional Property or portions thereof and added to the Condominium Property that are not restricted to residential use.

Section 10. Compatibility of Structures. All structures erected on all or any portion of the Additional Property and added to the Condominium Property will be reasonably consistent and reasonably compatible with structures then on the Condominium Property in terms of structure type, quality of construction, the principal materials to be used, and architectural style, and design. Comparable style and design shall be deemed to exist if the exterior appearance of the structures on the Additional Property is compatible and harmonious with those then on the Condominium Property. Design shall not be deemed to be incompatible or not comparable because of changes in the number of Units in a building, types or mix of types of Units in a building, changes in number of garage parking spaces, construction of Units with or without balconies, porches, decks, patios, and/or rooftop terraces, variances in setbacks or locations of structures in relation to other improvements, changes in design or finish detail, changes in elevations, or changes in size.

Section 11. Improvements Other than Structures. If all or a portion of the Additional Property is added to the Condominium Property, additional private drives, driveways, sidewalks, stormwater and drainage facilities, one or more mailbox facilities, two pump house buildings, private utility infrastructure, walkways, bicycle parking areas, limited irrigation systems serving portions of the Common Elements, green and landscaped areas, and other non-structural improvements similar to those then on the Condominium Property may be constructed on that Additional Property, and no other non-structural improvements. There is no requirement that such improvements must be made, and there are no restrictions or limitations on the improvements that may be made.

Section 12. Types of Units. All Units that are created on all or any portion of the Additional Property and added to the Condominium Property shall meet the basic minimum criteria set forth on Exhibit D.

Section 13. Limited Common Elements. Declarant reserves the right with respect to all or any portion of the Additional Property added to the Condominium Property to create Limited Common Elements therein of substantially the same type as those areas and improvements now so designated as such or as otherwise described herein. The precise size and number of such newly created Limited Common Elements cannot be ascertained precisely because those facts will depend on how large each portion added may be, the size and location of the buildings and other improvements on each portion, and other factors presently undetermined. Subject to the foregoing, there are no limits as to the types, sizes, and maximum number of Limited Common Elements that may be subsequently assigned to Units.

Section 14. Supplementary Drawings. Attached hereto and marked "Exhibit F" is a sketch drawing showing the location and relationship of the Additional Property to the Condominium Property. Declarant does not consider any other drawings or plans presently appropriate. However, at such time as Declarant adds all or any portion of the Additional Property is added to the Condominium Property drawings with respect to the Additional Property added shall be filed as required by the Condominium Act.

All master plans, site plans, brochures, illustrations, information, and marketing materials relating to the Condominium or Common Elements (collectively, the "Conceptual Plans") are conceptual in nature and are intended to be used for illustrative purposes only. The land uses and improvements, including but not limited to any amenity centers and open spaces, reflected on the Conceptual Plans are subject to change at any time and from time to time, and it is expressly agreed and understood that land uses within the Condominium or the Common Elements or outside of the property actually made part of the Condominium may include uses which are not shown on the Conceptual Plans. Declarant makes no representation or warranty concerning such land uses and improvements shown on the Conceptual Plans or otherwise planned for the Condominium or the Common Elements, and it is expressly agreed and understood that no Unit Owner will be entitled to rely upon the Conceptual Plans or any statements made by the Declarant or any of Declarant's representatives regarding any existing or proposed land uses, or proposed or planned improvements in making the decision to purchase a Unit.

Section 15. Procedures for Expansion. All or any portion of the Additional Property shall be added to the Condominium Property by the execution and filing for record by Declarant, or its successor as owner of the portion added and as assignee of the right to expand the Condominium, in the manner provided by the Condominium Act, of an amendment to the Declaration that contains the information and drawings with respect to the Additional Property and improvements thereon added required by the Condominium Act. The approval of Unit Owners, the Condominium Association, the Board, or any Mortgagee or Eligible Mortgagee shall not be required for any amendment expanding the Condominium to include all or any part of the Additional Property pursuant to the provisions of this Article XVI and the Condominium Act.

Section 16. Effects of Expansion. Except as hereinafter specifically provided otherwise, upon the recording with the Franklin County Recorder of an amendment to the Declaration adding all or any portion of the Additional Property to the Condominium Property:

(a) the added portion shall thereafter be subject to and benefited by all of the terms and provisions hereof, to the same extent and with the same effect as if that added portion had been provided herein as constituting part of the Condominium Property, that is, the rights, easements, covenants, restrictions, and assessment plan set forth herein shall run with, bind, and benefit the added portion in the same manner, to the same extent, and with the same force and effect as the terms of this Declaration apply to the Condominium Property, provided, that non-exclusive easements are reserved to Declarant, its successors and assigns, over and upon the Common Elements and Limited Common Elements in property added to the Condominium (i) for the initial sales and rental period of Units, for access to and for the purpose of completing improvements in that portion added; (ii) for the periods provided for warranties, or by law, for purposes of making repairs required pursuant to warranties; and (iii) for the initial sales and rental period for Units to maintain and utilize one or more of those Units and appurtenances thereto, and/or a portion or portions of the Common Elements, for sales and management offices and for storage and maintenance, and model Units, parking areas for sales and rental purposes, and advertising signs;

(b) the Unit Owner or Unit Owners of a Unit or Units in the added portion shall thereupon become members of the Condominium Association, to the same extent, with the same effect, subject to the same obligations, and imbued with the same rights, as all other members, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, one vote for each Unit owned by that Unit Owner or those Unit Owners;

(c) the undivided interests of Units in the Common Elements, as so expanded, shall be reallocated on the basis of all Units in the Condominium, including those added by any expansion, having an equal undivided interest;

(d) with respect to Units added, Operating Assessments shall commence the later of (i) the first day of the calendar month next following the date the documents adding the Units were duly recorded or (ii) the date established by the Condominium Association for the commencement of any Operating Assessment, and shall be prorated based on the number of full calendar months remaining in the year for which the Operating Assessments were levied; and

(e) in all other respects, all of the provisions of this Declaration shall include and apply to such additional portions, and to the Unit Owners, Mortgagees, and lessees thereof, with equal meaning and of like force and effect.

ARTICLE XVII

NOTICES TO AND VOTING RIGHTS OF LENDING INSTITUTIONS; FIRST MORTGAGEE RIGHTS CONFIRMED

Section 1. Notices. Any Eligible Mortgagee, upon written request to the Condominium Association (which request states the name and address of such Eligible Mortgagee and the Unit designation), shall be entitled to timely written notice by the Condominium Association of:

(a) any proposed addition to, change in, or amendment of the Condominium Organizational Documents of a material nature, including any addition to, change in, or amendment of any provision establishing, providing for, governing, or regulating: (i) any of the provisions governing voting rights; (ii) any of the provisions governing increases in Assessments that raise the previously assessed amount by more than twenty-five percent (25%), the basis of Assessments, Assessment liens, or priority of such liens; (iii) any of the provisions governing reductions in reserves for maintenance, repair, and replacement of Common Elements; (iv) any of the provisions governing responsibility for maintenance and repairs; (v) reallocation of interests in the Common Elements (including the Limited Common Elements) except in the case of expansion of the Condominium, or rights to their use; (vi) redefinition of boundaries of any Unit; (vii) convertibility of Units into Common Elements or vice versa; (viii) any of the provisions governing the method of expansion or contraction of the Condominium or the method of addition, annexation or withdrawal of property to or from the Condominium; (ix) any of the provisions governing hazard, fidelity or other insurance requirements; (x) imposition of any restrictions on the leasing of Units, (xi) imposition of any restrictions on a Unit Owner's right to sell or transfer that Unit Owner's Unit; (xii) if the Condominium consists of fifty (50) or more Units, a decision by the Condominium Association to establish self-management if professional management had been required previously by the Condominium instruments or by an Eligible Mortgagee; (xiii) restoration or repair of the Condominium Property after damage or partial condemnation in a manner other than specified in the Condominium instruments; (xiv) termination of the legal status of the Condominium after substantial destruction or condemnation occurs; (xv) any provisions expressly benefiting mortgage holders, insurers, or guarantors; (xvi) any provisions which affect the scheme of regulation or enforcement of standards for maintenance, architectural design or exterior appearance of improvements on Units; (xvii) any provisions governing the rights of any specific class of members; (xviii) any provisions governing dissolution of the Condominium Association except pursuant to consolidation or merger; (xix) any provision governing the conveyance of any or all Common Elements; or (xx) any other amendment to the Condominium Organizational Documents. No addition to, change in, or amendment of the Condominium Organizational Documents shall be considered material if it is for the purpose of correcting technical errors, for clarification only, for the purpose of meeting the requirements of institutional Mortgagees, guarantors, and insurers of first mortgage loans, or the requirements of insurance underwriters; or for purposes of expanding the Condominium pursuant to the other provisions contained herein or in the Condominium Organizational Documents;

Section 2. Voting Rights. No action with respect to which Eligible Mortgagees are entitled to notice, as provided in subparagraphs (a) or (b) of Section 1 of this Article XVII, may be taken without the consent of Eligible Mortgagees of Units to which not less than fifty-one percent (51%) of the votes of Units subject to mortgages held by Eligible Mortgagees appertain, provided, further, that no action to terminate the Condominium or that would have that effect other than by reason of substantial destruction or condemnation of the Condominium Property, shall be taken without the consent of Eligible Mortgagees of Units to which not less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the votes of Units subject to mortgages held by Eligible Mortgagees appertain.

ARTICLE XVIII

AMENDMENTS

Section 1. Power to Amend. Except in the case of expansion of the Condominium as provided in the Condominium Organizational Documents or as otherwise specifically provided in this Declaration or Ohio law, additions to, changes in, or amendment of this Declaration (or the other Condominium Organizational Documents) or the taking of any of the actions which require the consent of Eligible Mortgagees representing Units exercising not less than a majority of the voting power of Units subject to mortgages held by Eligible Mortgagees, as provided elsewhere herein, shall, in addition to such consents of Eligible Mortgagees, require the consent of Unit Owners exercising not less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the voting power of Unit Owners. The foregoing notwithstanding:

(a) except as otherwise provided in the Condominium Organizational Documents in the case of the expansion of the Condominium, the written consent of all Unit Owners, including Declarant, so long as Declarant owns a Unit or has the right to expand the Condominium, in addition to the consent of Eligible Mortgagees to which at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the voting power of Units subject to mortgages held by Eligible Mortgagees appertain, shall be required for any amendment effecting a change in:

(i) the boundaries of any Unit or the convertibility of Units into Common Elements or vice versa;

(ii) the undivided interest in the Common Elements appertaining to a Unit or the liability for common expenses appertaining thereto;

(iii) the construction of an addition to or an expansion of a Unit into Limited Common Elements or Common Elements;

(b) except as otherwise provided in the Declaration, the written consent of Unit Owners exercising not less than eighty percent (80%) of the voting power of Unit Owners; including the consent of Unit Owners other than Declarant who hold a majority of the voting power of Units owned by Unit Owners other than Declarant and the consent of Mortgagees on Units whose owners are entitled to exercise seventy-five (75%) or more of the voting power of the owners of Units subject to mortgages held by Mortgagees shall be required to terminate the Condominium;

(c) in any event, each Unit Owner, by acceptance of a deed to a Unit, is deemed to and does give and grant a power of attorney, which right and power is coupled with an interest and runs with the title to a Unit and is irrevocable:

(i) to Declarant, for so long as Declarant owns any Unit, to amend the Condominium Organizational Documents, to the extent necessary to (A) conform to the requirements then governing the making of a mortgage loan or the purchase, guaranty, or insurance of mortgages by an institutional lender or an institutional guarantor or insurer of a mortgage on a Unit, provided that the appropriate percentage (as described elsewhere herein) of Eligible Mortgagees is obtained (if required), or (B) correct typographical or factual or obvious errors or omissions the correction of which would not impair the interest of any Unit Owner, Mortgagee, insurer, or guarantor, provided, further, that if there is a Unit Owner other than Declarant, the Declaration shall not be amended to increase the scope or the period of our control; and further provided that if the project has been approved by the Department of Veterans Affairs, such amendment (except amendments expanding or aiding in the expansion of the Condominium) must be approved by the Secretary of the Department of Veterans Affairs; and

(ii) to the Board, without a vote of Unit Owners or the approval of Mortgagees, to amend the Declaration in any manner necessary for any of the following purposes:

a. to meet the requirements of institutional mortgagees, guarantors, and insurers of first mortgage loans or the requirements of insurance underwriters;

b. to bring the Declaration into compliance with requirements of the Condominium Act;

c. to correct clerical or typographical errors in this Declaration or an exhibit or amendment thereto; and

d. to designate a successor to the person named to receive service of process for the Condominium Association, provided the naming of a successor need not be by amendment to the Declaration if the change of statutory agent is appropriately filed with the Ohio Secretary of State;

but for no other purpose; and

(d) in addition to the consent of Unit Owners set forth above, any addition to, change in, or amendment of the Condominium Organizational Documents of a material adverse nature to Mortgagees must also be agreed to by Mortgagees on Units whose Unit Owners are entitled to exercise fifty-one percent (51%) or more of the voting power of Unit Owners of Units that are subject to mortgages; provided the expansion of the Condominium as provided for in the Declaration shall not be considered to be material adverse to Mortgagees, and provided further that any amendment provided for under sub-item (c) above shall not be considered to be material adverse to Mortgagees.

An Eligible Mortgagee or Mortgagee of a Unit who receives a written request to approve changes, additions, or amendments sent by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, and who does not deliver or post to the requesting party a negative response within sixty (60) days after receipt of the same, shall be deemed to have approved such request.

Section 2. Method to Amend. An amendment to this Declaration (or the Drawings or the Bylaws), adopted with the consents of Unit Owners and Eligible Mortgagees and/or Mortgagees hereinbefore required, or by the Board, shall be executed with the same formalities as to execution as this Declaration by two officers of the Condominium Association and shall contain their certification that such amendment was duly adopted in accordance with the foregoing provisions. Any amendment adopted by Declarant or a duly-empowered successor Declarant pursuant to authority granted it pursuant to the Declaration shall be duly executed by it with the same formalities as to execution as this Declaration and shall contain the certification of such signor or signors that such amendment is made pursuant to authority vested in Declarant or any duly empowered successor Declarant by the Declaration. Any amendment duly adopted and executed in accordance with the foregoing provisions shall be effective upon the filing of the same with the Franklin County Auditor and Recorder.

Section 3. Approval of Veteran's Administration During Declarant Control of Condominium Association. If the Condominium has been approved by the Department of Veteran's Affairs, any amendment (other than amendments expanding or aiding in the expansion of the Condominium as provided for in this Declaration) during the period that Declarant is in control of the Condominium Association must be approved by the Secretary of the Department of Veterans Affairs.

ARTICLE XIX

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Covenants Running with the Land. The covenants, conditions, restrictions, easements, reservations, powers of attorney, liens, and charges created hereunder or hereby shall run with and bind the land, and each part thereof, and shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of all parties having any right, title or interest in or to all or any part of the Condominium Property, and the Condominium Association, and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns.

Section 2. Actions. In addition to any other remedies provided in this Declaration, Declarant (only with respect to those rights directly benefiting Declarant), the Condominium Association, and each Unit Owner shall have the right to enforce, by any proceeding at law or in equity, but not the duty, all restrictions, conditions, covenants, easements, reservations, liens, and charges set forth herein or in the Bylaws or now or hereafter imposed by or through the Condominium Association's rules and regulations. Failure by Declarant, the Condominium Association, or by any Unit Owner to proceed with such enforcement shall in no event be deemed a waiver of the right to enforce at a later date the original violation or a subsequent violation, nor shall the doctrine of laches nor any statute of limitations bar the enforcement of any such restriction, condition, covenant, reservation, easement, lien or charge. Further, the Condominium Association and each Unit Owner shall have rights of action against each other for failure to comply with the provisions of the Condominium Organizational Documents, rules and regulations, and applicable law, and with respect to decisions made pursuant to authority granted thereunder, provided, the Condominium Association shall have the right to assess reasonable charges against a Unit Owner who fails to comply with the same, including the right to assess charges for the costs of enforcement (including reasonable attorney fees), and provided, further, that neither the Condominium Association nor its Directors, officers, or other representatives, shall be liable to any Unit Owner or Occupant, or their invitees, for damage to any Unit or any part thereof, or any personal property of such Unit Owner, Occupant or invitee, or for injury to such person, unless the damage or injury was proximately caused by the gross negligence or the intentional tortious act of the Condominium Association or such Director, officer or other representative. The Condominium Association shall NOT have the right to initiate or prosecute eviction proceedings to evict a tenant of a Unit, either in its own name, as agent of the Condominium Association, or in the name of the Unit Owner. In addition to all other remedies available by law, the Condominium Association may use summary abatement or similar means to enforce any provisions hereof or restrictions against the Unit or its use, provided that judicial proceedings shall be instituted before any items of construction may be altered or demolished by summary means.

In addition, the Condominium Association may not commence a legal proceeding or action without the affirmative vote of Owners exercising not less than sixty-seven percent (67%) of the voting power of Unit Owners. This limitation does not apply, however, to (i) actions brought by the Condominium Association to enforce the provisions of this Declaration (including, without limitation, legal actions instituted to collect assessments owed to the Condominium Association, such as actions to recover personal judgments and/or foreclosure of Condominium Association); (iii) proceedings involving challenges to ad valorem taxation; or (iv) counterclaims or cross-claims brought by the Condominium Association in proceedings instituted against it.

Section 3. Notices. Except as otherwise specifically required by the Condominium Organizational Documents or applicable law, any notices, demands, or other communications from the Condominium Association to a Unit Owner shall be given in writing (a) by personal delivery to the Unit Owner, (b) by personal delivery at the Unit, (c) by depositing such notice in the United States Mail, first class, postage prepaid, to the address of the Unit Owner as shown by the records of the Condominium Association, or as otherwise designated in writing by the Owner, or (d) by electronic mail to any Unit Owner who has voluntarily provided the Condominium Association, in writing, with a designated electronic mailing address. Nothing contained within this Declaration or the Bylaws shall require that the Board utilize electronic mail delivery in lieu of another approved delivery method. The Condominium Association shall have no obligation to perform research or investigations beyond its records to ascertain the identity or the postal or electronic mailing address of any Unit Owner. Any demand, notice, or other communication or action given or taken hereunder or by one of the joint owners of a Unit shall be deemed to be given, taken, or received by all such joint Unit Owners.

Section 4. Severability. If any provision (or any part of any provision) contained in this Declaration shall for any reason be held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable in any respect, such invalidity, illegality, or unenforceability shall not affect any other provision, this Declaration shall be reformed and construed as if such invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision (or part thereof) had never been contained herein (but only to the extent it is invalid, illegal or unenforceable), and such invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision shall be reformed so that it would be valid, legal and enforceable to the maximum extent possible.

Section 5. Successor Owner. A successor owner of Condominium Property or any part thereof, or of Additional Property added to the Condominium Property, who is not an affiliate of Declarant and who is a bona fide purchaser of the property for value, or a purchaser who acquires the property at a sheriff's sale or by deed in lieu of foreclosure, shall not be liable in damages for harm caused by an action or omission of Declarant or a breach of an obligation by Declarant.

Section 6. Limited Warranties. Declarant provides to each purchaser of a Unit from Declarant certain limited warranties, which are described in a development statement provided to each of those purchasers at or prior to the time the purchaser enters into a contract to purchase a Unit from Declarant and in the limited warranty documents agreed to by Declarant and the Unit purchaser in the contract to purchase. Declarant specifically disclaims any and all warranties, express or implied, other than as set forth in Declarant's limited warranty and as required by Chapter 5311 of the Ohio Revised Code. The Declarant hereby assigns to the Condominium Association all warranties received by the Declarant with regard to the Common Elements. In addition, all warranties received by the Declarant with regard to the Common Elements added by any expansion shall automatically be assigned to the Condominium Association upon the recording of an amendment to the Declaration expanding the Condominium to include those Common Elements.

Section 7. Gender and Grammar. The singular, wherever used herein, shall be construed to mean the plural when applicable, and the necessary grammatical changes required to make the provisions hereof apply either to corporations, partnerships, men, or women, shall in all cases be assumed as though in such case fully expressed.

Section 8. Captions. The captions of the various provisions of this Declaration are not part of the context hereof, but are merely labels to assist in locating the various provisions hereof.

OF

TOWNS ON THE PARKWAY CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION, INC.

ARTICLE I

NAME AND LOCATION

The name of the Condominium Association is Towns on the Parkway Condominium Association, Inc. (the "Condominium Association"), which nonprofit corporation is created pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 1702 of the Revised Code of Ohio, and which Condominium Association is also created pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 5311 of the Revised Code of Ohio as the Unit Owners' association for Towns on the Parkway Condominium. The principal office of the Condominium Association shall be as set forth in its Articles of Incorporation (the "Articles of Incorporation"), and the place of meetings of Unit Owners (members) and of the Board of Directors (the "Board") of the Condominium Association shall be at such place in Franklin County as the Board may from time to time designate.

ARTICLE II

DEFINITIONS

All of the terms used herein shall have the same meanings as set forth in the Declaration of Condominium (the "Declaration"), recorded simultaneously herewith with the Recorder's office of Franklin County, Ohio.

ARTICLE III

UNIT OWNERS (MEMBERS)

Section 1. Composition. Each Unit Owner, as defined in the Declaration, is a member of the Condominium Association.

Section 2. Annual Meetings. Regular annual meetings of the Unit Owners shall be held in the second calendar quarter of each year hereafter, on a date and at an hour established, from time to time, by the Board, provided that, in any event, there shall be no more than fourteen (14) months between annual meetings of the members.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Unit Owners may be called at any time by the president or by the Board, or upon written request of Unit Owners entitled to exercise one-fourth (1/4) or more of the voting power of Unit Owners, and when required by the Condominium Act.

Section 4. Meeting with Authorized Communications Equipment. Notwithstanding any provision contained in the Condominium Organizational Documents to the contrary, during such a time and only during such a time as any federal, state or local governmental rule, regulation, declaration, or other action, including, but not limited to, the declared Ohio "State of Emergency" and the United States "National Emergency" in effect as of the date of the recording of these Bylaws, prohibits or otherwise makes an in-person meeting of the Unit Owners impossible, unsafe, and/or impractical, the Board in its reasonable discretion, shall be authorized to call and/or conduct any annual, special, or other meeting of the Unit Owners including, but not limited to, a meeting called for the purpose of electing a director or directors by virtue of Declarant having sold and conveyed Units having a certain of the undivided interests in the Common Elements as discussed in Article IV of these Bylaws, whereby Unit Owners may be permitted and/or exclusively allowed to attend the meeting "in person" by the use of "Authorized Communications Equipment". For the purposes of this Section 4, "Authorized Communications Equipment" shall be defined as any communications equipment that provides a transmission by telephone, video, telecopy, or any electronic means, from which it can be determined that the transmission was authorized by, and accurately reflects the intention of, the Unit Owner or director involved and, with respect to meetings, affords all persons participating in the meeting an opportunity to contemporaneously communicate with each other.

For purposes of providing notice of the meeting, and any other requirements contained in the Condominium Organizational Documents, the "place" of the meeting described within this Section 4 may be a designated physical location or a virtual address or number reached solely by means of Authorized Communications Equipment, in the Board's sole and absolute discretion. Any Unit Owner who uses Authorized Communications Equipment under this Section 4 is deemed to be present in person at the meeting whether the meeting is held at a designated place or solely by means of Authorized Communications Equipment. In the event a purpose of a meeting of the Unit Owners is to elect one or more directors to the Condominium Association, the Board may forego taking nominations from the floor of the meeting, provided that the membership has been afforded a reasonable opportunity, as determined by the Board, to submit a nomination(s) prior to the election. The Board may adopt procedures and guidelines for the orderly operation of a meeting and voting, and any and all other actions as set forth in Chapters 1702 and 5311 of the Revised Code of Ohio. By way of example and not limitation, this may include the ability of the Board to enact procedures for Unit Owners to cast a vote by written ballots; mailed ballots; general or directed proxies; and/or Authorized Communications Equipment, even if any such method is not specified in the other provisions of these Bylaws or other Condominium Organizational Documents.

Section 5. Notice of Meetings. Written notice of each meeting shall be given by, or at the direction of, the secretary or person authorized to call the meeting at least five (5) days before such meeting (a) by personally delivering a copy of such notice, (b) by mailing a copy of such notice, postage prepaid, addressed to the Unit Owner's address last appearing on the books of the Condominium Association or supplied by such Unit Owner to the Condominium Association for the purpose of notice, (c) by delivering a copy of that notice at such address (or to such Unit Owner wherever they may be found), or (d) by electronic mail to any Unit Owner who has voluntarily provided, in writing, a designated electronic mailing address to the Condominium Association. The notice shall specify the place, day, and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the specific purpose(s) of the meeting. Attendance by a Unit Owner, either in person or by proxy, at a meeting without protesting prior to or at the commencement of the meeting, the lack of proper notice shall be deemed to be a waiver by the Unit Owner of notice of such meeting.

Section 6. Conduct of Meetings. All meetings of the Unit Owners shall be conducted by the Board and presided over by the president of the Condominium Association or as otherwise directed by the Board.

Section 7. Participation at Meetings. Meetings of the Unit Owners shall be open to all Unit Owners unless otherwise specified by direction of the Board in the notice of meeting. The Board, in its sole discretion, may exclude from attendance at a meeting of the Unit Owners, Unit Owners and their agents and representatives (other than Declarant and its successors and assigns so long as Declarant owns a Unit or Units in the Condominium or has the right to expand the Condominium) in these instances:

(a) A determination by the Board that the Unit Owner has a threatened or pending adverse interest to the interests of the Condominium Association, or the Board, or any member of the Board, or any officer, employee, committee member, or agent of the Condominium Association, in such Person's capacity as such, if a subject of the meeting will be a discussion of a vote with regard to such adverse interest; or

(b) for any other reason deemed by the Board, from the standpoint of the Condominium Association's best interests, to be of sufficient merit that attendance and participation at a meeting by such Unit Owner would not be in the Condominium Association's best interests;

provided that nothing contained in this Section shall preclude or exclude a Unit Owner from voting by proxy on any matter properly voted upon at that meeting by Unit Owners.

Section 8. Quorum; Adjournment. The Unit Owners present, in person or by proxy, at any duly called and noticed meeting of Unit Owners shall constitute a quorum for such meeting. Unit Owners entitled to exercise a majority of the voting power of Unit Owners represented at a meeting in person or by proxy may, at any time, adjourn such meeting. If any meeting is so adjourned, notice of such adjournment need not be given if the time and place to which such meeting is adjourned are fixed and announced at such meeting.

Section 9. Voting Rights. One vote on matters upon which Unit Owners are entitled to vote shall be allocated to each Unit, exercisable as the owners of the undivided fee simple interests in that Unit may from time to time determine. If the owners of the fee simple interests in a Unit are unable with respect to a particular matter to agree among themselves as to the vote to be cast with respect to that Unit, no vote shall be cast with respect to that Unit or that particular matter, provided, that unless timely challenged by an owner of a fee simple interest in a Unit, any owner of a fee simple interest in that Unit may cast the entire vote with respect to that Unit. The Board, from time to time, may suspend the right of the owner or owners of a Unit to cast a vote with respect to that Unit if Assessments with respect to that Unit are overdue, or there is at that time, with respect to the Unit Owners or Occupants of that Unit, a failure to observe any of the terms of the Condominium Organizational Documents, or rules and regulations duly adopted by the Board and then in effect.

Section 10. Voting Power. Except as otherwise provided in the Condominium Organizational Documents, or by law, a majority of the voting power of Unit Owners voting on any matter that may be determined by the Unit Owners at a duly called and noticed meeting shall be sufficient to determine that matter. The rules of Roberts Rules of Order shall apply to the conduct of all meetings of Unit Owners except as otherwise specifically provided in the Condominium Organizational Documents or by law.

Section 11. Proxies. At any meeting of Unit Owners, a Unit Owner may vote in person or by proxy. All proxies shall be in writing and filed with the secretary prior to the meeting. A telegram, cablegram, electronic mail, or an electronic, telephonic, or other transmission appearing to have been transmitted by a Unit Owner appointing a proxy is a sufficient writing as is a photographic, photostatic, facsimile, or equivalent reproduction of a writing signed by a Unit Owner appointing a proxy is a sufficient writing. Every proxy shall be revocable and shall automatically cease upon conveyance by a Unit Owner of that Unit Owner's fee simple interest in that Unit Owner's Unit, and, in any event, shall not be valid after the expiration of eleven months after it is made unless it specifies the date on which it is to expire or the length of time it is to continue in force.

Section 12. Action in Writing Without Meeting. Unless otherwise required by law or the provisions of the Condominium Organizational Documents, any action that could be taken by Unit Owners at a meeting may be taken without a meeting with the affirmative vote or approval, in a writing or writings, of Unit Owners or their proxies having not less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the voting power of Unit Owners, or such greater proportion of the voting power as may be required by the Condominium Organizational Documents, or by law.

ARTICLE IV

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Initial Directors. The initial Directors and their business addresses are as set forth in the Articles of Incorporation, or such other person or persons as may from time to time be substituted and designated by Declarant.

Section 2. Successor Directors. No later than sixty (60) days after Declarant has sold and conveyed Units to which twenty-five percent (25%) of the undivided interests in the Common Elements appertain, the Unit Owners shall meet in person or via proxy or as otherwise permitted in Article III, Section 4 of these Bylaws, and the Unit Owners other than Declarant shall elect one Director at such meeting to replace whichever Director Declarant designates. Within the earlier of (a) five years from the date of the establishment of the Condominium Association, and (b) sixty (60) days after the sale and conveyance to purchasers in good faith and for value of Units to which seventy-five percent (75%) of the undivided interests in the Common Elements appertain, the Condominium Association shall hold a meeting and the Unit Owners shall meet in person or via proxy or as otherwise permitted in Article III, Section 4 of these Bylaws, and all Unit Owners, including Declarant, shall elect six (6) Directors, whose terms shall commence at the end of the meeting during which they are elected, to replace all of those Directors earlier elected or designated by the Unit Owners or Declarant, respectively. The terms of the six (6) Directors shall be staggered so that the term of one-third (two) of the Directors will expire, and successors will be elected at each annual meeting of the Condominium Association. Thereafter, at such annual meetings, successors to the Directors whose terms then expire shall be elected to serve three-year terms. Notwithstanding the foregoing, from and after the time that the Condominium Association meets and the Unit Owners elect the six (6) Directors, the Unit Owners, by the vote of Unit Owners exercising not less than a majority of the voting power of Unit Owners, may, from time to time, change the number and terms of Directors, provided, that in any such event the terms of not less than one-third of the Directors shall expire annually. For purposes of computing undivided interests pursuant to the foregoing, those interests shall be computed by comparing the number of Units sold and conveyed to the maximum number of Units (154) that may be in the Condominium. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Declarant shall have the right at any time to waive its right to select one or more Directors or to vote in an election of Directors. In addition, notwithstanding any requirement as to the maximum time period during which Directors appointed by Declarant may serve, Declarant reserves the right, at any time prior thereto, to have the Unit Owners elect Directors and for Declarant to turn over the functions of operation of the Condominium Association to those elected Directors.

Section 3. Removal. Excepting only Directors named in the Articles of Incorporation or selected by Declarant, any Director may be removed from the Board with or without cause by the holders of not less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the voting power of Unit Owners. In the event of the death, resignation, or removal of a Director other than one named in the Articles of Incorporation or a substitute selected by Declarant, that Director's successor shall be selected by the remaining members of the Board and shall serve until the next annual meeting of Unit Owners, when a Director shall be elected to complete the term of such deceased, resigned or removed Director. In the event of removal of all Directors, the Unit Owners shall, at the meeting at which all Directors are removed, elect Directors to complete the terms of the removed Directors. Declarant shall have the sole right to remove, with or without cause, any Director designated in the Articles of Incorporation, or a substitute selected by Declarant, and select the successor of any Director so selected who dies, resigns, is removed, or leaves office for any reason before the election of Directors by all of the Unit Owners as provided herein.

Section 4. Qualification. To qualify for nomination, election, or appointment as a Director (other than by Declarant), the prospect must be an individual who is a Unit Owner or Co-Owner of a Unit, the spouse of a Unit Owner or Co-Owner of a Unit, or a designated principal, member of a limited liability company, partner, director, officer, or employee of an entity or other organization that is a Unit Owner, and such Unit Owner or Co-Owner of a Unit or the Unit Owner of such spouse must not then be delinquent in the payment of any obligation to the Condominium Association by more than thirty (30) days, or then be an adverse party to the Condominium Association, or its Board or any member thereof (in that member's capacity as a Board member) in any litigation involving one or more of those parties. In addition, other than Board members appointed by the Declarant pursuant to the provisions of the Condominium Organizational Documents, the majority of the Board shall not consist of Unit Owners or representatives from the same Unit unless authorized by a resolution adopted by the Board prior to the Board majority being comprised of Unit Owners or representatives from the same Unit.

Section 5. Nomination. Nominations for the election of Directors to be elected by the Unit Owners may be made by a nominating committee appointed by the Board or, if the Board fails to appoint a nominating committee, by the Board itself. Nominations may also be made from the floor at the meetings.

Section 6. Election. Unless there are no more nominees than vacancies, election to the Board by the Unit Owners shall be by secret written ballot. At such elections, the Unit Owners or their proxies may cast, in respect to each vacancy, such number of votes as they are entitled to under the provisions of the Declaration. The persons receiving the largest number of votes shall be elected, and, likewise, those receiving the largest number of votes shall be elected to the longest terms. In cases of ties, the winner shall be determined by lot. In no case shall cumulative voting be permitted.

Section 7. Compensation. Unless otherwise determined by the Unit Owners at a meeting duly called and noticed for such purpose, no Director shall receive compensation for any service rendered to the Condominium Association as a Director. However, any Director may be reimbursed for actual expenses incurred in the performance of duties as a Director.

Section 8. Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board shall be held on such dates and at such places and times as may be fixed from time to time by resolution of the Board, but not less than quarterly.

Section 9. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board shall be held when called by the president of the Board, or by a majority of the Directors, after not less than three (3) days' notice to each Director.

Section 10. Executive Session. The Board may, with approval of a majority of a quorum of the Board, adjourn a meeting and reconvene in executive session to discuss and vote upon matters as determined by the Board in its sole discretion.

Section 11. Quorum. The presence at any duly called and noticed meeting of Directors entitled to cast a majority of the voting power of Directors, in person and/or by participation by means of communications equipment if all persons participating can hear each other, participate, and respond to every other participating member of the Board, shall constitute a quorum for such meeting.

Section 12. Voting Power. Each Director shall be entitled to a single vote and, except as otherwise provided in the Condominium Organizational Documents, or by law, vote of a majority of the Directors voting on any matter that may be determined by the Board at a duly called and noticed meeting at which a quorum is present, in person or by participation as provided in Section 11, above, shall be sufficient to determine that matter.

Section 13. Action in Writing Without Meeting. Any action that could be taken by the Board at a meeting may be taken without a meeting with the written consent, in a writing or writings, of all of the Directors.

Section 14. Powers and Authority. The Board shall exercise all powers and have all authority, under law and under the provisions of the Condominium Organizational Documents, that are not specifically and exclusively reserved to the Unit Owners by law or by other provisions of the Condominium Organizational Documents, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Board shall have the right, power, and authority to:

(a) take all actions deemed necessary or desirable to comply with or to cause compliance with all requirements of law and the Condominium Organizational Documents;

(b) hire and fire managing agents, attorneys, accountants, and other independent contractors and employees that the Board determines are necessary or desirable in the management of the Condominium Property and the Condominium Association;

(c) commence, defend, intervene in, settle, or compromise any civil, criminal, or administrative action or proceeding that is in the name of, or threatened against, the Condominium Association, the Board, or the Condominium Property;

(d) enter into contracts and incur liabilities relating to the operation of the Condominium Property;

(e) regulate the use, maintenance, repair, replacement, modification, and appearance of the Common Elements;

(f) obtain insurance coverage and bonds the Board considers appropriate or necessary; provided that insurance coverage and bonds required pursuant to the provisions of the Declaration and in amounts no less than that required pursuant to the provisions of the Declaration shall be obtained and maintained;

(g) enforce the covenants, conditions, and restrictions set forth in the Declaration;

(h) cause additional improvements to be made as part of the Common Elements;

(i) repair, maintain and improve the Common Elements;

(j) acquire, encumber, and convey or otherwise transfer personal property;

(k) grant easements, leases, licenses, and concessions through or over the Common Elements;

(l) impose and collect fees or other charges for the use, rental, or operation of the Common Elements;

(m) declare the office of a member of the Board to be vacant in the event such Director shall be absent from three consecutive regular meetings of the Board;

(n) establish, enforce, levy, and collect Assessments, late fees, delinquent interest, and such other charges as are provided for in the Declaration and adopt, publish, and enforce rules and regulations concerning the same;

(o) impose interest and late charges for the late payment of assessments and impose returned check charges;

(p) adopt and amend rules that regulate the collection of delinquent assessments and the application of payments of delinquent Assessments;

(q) impose reasonable charges for preparing, recording, or copying amendments to the Declaration, Bylaws, resale certificates, or statements of unpaid assessments;

(r) enter a Unit for bona fide purposes when conditions exist that involve an imminent risk of damage or harm to Common Elements, another Unit, or to the health or safety of the Occupants of that Unit or another Unit;

(s) adopt and publish rules and regulations governing the use of the Common Elements and the personal conduct of Unit Owners, Occupants, and their guests thereon, provided that no such rules or regulations shall be intended to, or interpreted as, or create distinctions or different criteria or standards between Unit Owners who are Occupants and their interests, and Occupants who are not Unit Owners, and their interests;

(t) suspend the voting rights of a Unit Owner during any period in which such Unit Owner shall be in default in the payment of any Assessment or other charge levied by the Condominium Association (such rights may also be suspended, after notice and hearing, for a period not to exceed sixty (60) days for each infraction of published rules and regulations or of any provisions of the Condominium Organizational Documents);

(u) cause excess funds of the Condominium Association to be invested in such reasonable investments that meet standards for fiduciary investments under Ohio law as the Board may from time to time determine;

(v) borrow funds, as needed, and pledge and assign such security and rights of the Condominium Association, including rights to levy and collect Condominium Association Assessments of every type or nature, or other future income, and to file liens therefore and enforce collection thereof, as might be necessary or desirable in the judgment of the Board, to obtain any such loan;

(w) purchase, cause the Condominium Association to hold title to, and sell real property not declared to be part of the Condominium Property, provided that (i) if any such transaction takes place prior to the time Unit Owners other than the Declarant assume control of the Condominium Association, approval of the transaction must be obtained from Declarant and Unit Owners other than Declarant exercising not less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the voting power of the members of the Condominium Association, as well as the Board, and (ii) if after Unit Owners other than Declarant assume control of the Condominium Association, the approval of Unit Owners exercising not less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the voting power of members of the Condominium Association, as well as the Board;

(x) take such actions and expend the Condominium Association funds and Assessments as the Board deems appropriate, in its sole discretion, to satisfy the requirements of institutional mortgagees, and guarantors and insurers of first mortgage loans for the financing or refinancing of Units that are a part of the Condominium; and

(y) do all things and take all actions permitted to be taken by the Condominium Association by law, not prohibited or otherwise limited by the provisions of the Condominium Organizational Documents, or not specifically reserved thereby to others.

Section 15. Duties. It shall be the duty of the Board to:

(a) cause to be kept a complete record of all its acts and corporate affairs, including correct and complete books and records of account that specify receipts and expenditures relating to Common Elements and other common receipts and expenses, records showing the allocation, distribution, and collection of common profits, losses, and expenses among and from Unit Owners, minutes of meetings of the members and meetings of the Board, and records of the names and addresses of Unit Owners and their respective undivided interests in the Common Elements;

(b) present the latest available financial statement of the Condominium Association to the Unit Owners at each annual meeting of Unit Owners, or at any special meeting when requested in writing by Unit Owners representing not less than a majority of the voting power of Unit Owners;

(c) cause to be enforced the legal requirement that each Person who obtains a fee simple interest in a Unit provide to the Condominium Association, in writing, within thirty (30) days after acquiring such interest:

(i) the home address, home and business mailing addresses, and the home and business telephone numbers of the Unit Owner and all Occupants of the Unit; and

(ii) the name, business address, and business telephone number of any Person who manages the Unit Owner's Unit as an agent of that Unit Owner; and the requirement that each Unit Owner notify the Condominium Association in writing of any change in the foregoing information within thirty (30) days of the change.

(d) supervise all officers, agents, and employees of the Condominium Association and see that their duties are properly performed;

(e) cause an annual budget to be prepared, and amendments thereto as needed; provided that the failure or delay of the Board to adopt a budget as provided in the Condominium Organizational Documents shall not constitute a waiver or release of the obligation of a Unit Owner to pay the Assessments and in such event, the budget last adopted shall continue until such time as the Board adopts a new budget;

(f) as more fully provided in the Declaration, establish, levy, enforce and collect Assessments;

(g) subject to applicable law, issue, or to cause an appropriate representative to issue, upon demand by any Person, a certificate setting forth whether or not any Assessment has been paid;

(h) procure and maintain insurance and bonds as provided in the Declaration, and as the Board deems advisable;

(i) cause the property subject to the Condominium Association's jurisdiction to be maintained within the scope of authority provided in the Declaration; and

(j) take all other actions required to comply with all requirements of the Condominium Organizational Documents.

Except in the case of Special Individual Unit Assessments for utility charges chargeable to a Unit, interest, late charges, returned check charges, court costs, arbitration costs, and/or attorneys' fees, prior to levying a Special Individual Unit Assessment, as provided in the Declaration, the Board shall give the Unit Owner or Owners written notice, which may be in the form of electronic mail to an electronic mail address previously provided by the Unit Owner in writing, of the proposed Assessment that includes:

(i) a statement of the facts giving rise to the proposed Special Individual Unit Assessment, including, if applicable, a description of the property, damaged or the violation of the restriction, rule, or regulation allegedly violated;

(ii) the amount of the proposed Special Individual Unit Assessment;

(iii) a statement that the Unit Owner has a right to a hearing before the Board to contest the proposed Special Individual Unit Assessment by delivering to the Board a written notice requesting a hearing within ten (10) days after the Unit Owner receives written notice of the proposed Special Individual Unit Assessment; and

(iv) in the case of a charge for violation of a restriction, rule, or regulation, a reasonable date by which the Unit Owner must cure the alleged violation to avoid the proposed Special Individual Unit Assessment.

The notice by the Board given pursuant to the foregoing may be delivered personally to the Unit Owner to whom a Special Individual Unit Assessment is proposed to be charged, delivered personally to an Occupant of that Owner's Unit, delivered by certified mail, return receipt requested, delivered by regular mail, or delivered in the form of electronic mail to an electronic mail address previously provided by the Unit Owner in writing. In the event after such hearing the Board determines to levy the Special Individual Unit Assessment proposed, the Board shall deliver to the Unit Owner written notice thereof within thirty (30) days of the date of that hearing.

Section 16. Delegation of Authority; Management; Contracts. The Board may delegate all or any portion of its authority to discharge its responsibilities to a managing agent. This delegation of authority and responsibility to a managing agent may be evidenced by one or more management contracts which may provide for the payment of reasonable compensation to such managing agent as a common expense, provided, however, that any agreement for professional management shall be terminable by the Condominium Association for cause on thirty (30) days' written notice; shall be terminable by either party without cause and without penalty, on written notice of ninety (90) days or less; and shall be bona fide and commercially reasonable at the time entered into under the circumstances then prevailing, provided that, in the case of any professional management contract entered into before control of the Condominium Association is vested in Unit Owners other than Declarant, the contract must give the Condominium Association the right to terminate it without cause and without penalty at any time after control of the Condominium Association has been transferred to or assumed by Unit Owners other than Declarant. Subject to the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall preclude Declarant or any other entity designated by Declarant from being employed as managing agent. The managing agent, or the Board, if there is no managing agent, shall have the authority to enter into contracts with Declarant or an affiliate of Declarant, as defined by an institutional first mortgagee or an agency or organization which purchases, insures, or guarantees first mortgages, for goods, services, or for any other thing, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, contracts for the providing of maintenance and repair services, provided the same are bona fide and commercially reasonable to the Unit Owners at the time entered into under the circumstances then prevailing. In any case, no management contract or agreement by the Condominium Association executed prior to the assumption of control of the Condominium Association by Unit Owners other than Declarant shall extend more than ninety (90) days, and no other contract, except for necessary utility services, shall extend more than one year, subsequent to that assumption of control unless renewed by vote of Unit Owners pursuant to the provisions of these Bylaws.

The books, records, and financial statements of the Condominium Association, including current copies of the Declaration, Bylaws, Articles of Incorporation, and effective rules and regulations, shall be available during normal business hours or under other reasonable circumstances, upon request to the Condominium Association, for inspection by Unit Owners, lenders, and the holders, insurers and guarantors of first mortgages on Units, pursuant to reasonable standards established from time to time by the Board by rule, including, without limitation, standards governing the type of documents that are subject to examination and copying, the times and locations at which those documents may be examined or copied, and the specification of a reasonable fee for copying the documents. In addition, during normal business hours or under other reasonable circumstances, the Condominium Association shall make available to prospective purchasers current copies of the Declaration, Bylaws, Articles of Incorporation, effective rules and regulations, and the most recent annual audited financial statement (if such is prepared) subject to reasonable standards established from time to time by the Board.

The foregoing notwithstanding, the Board shall not be required to permit the examination and copying of the Condominium Association's books, records, or minutes that (a) date back more than five (5) years from the date of the request to the Condominium Association or (b) contain any information pertaining to Condominium property-related matters, contain communications with legal counsel or attorney work product pertaining to pending litigation or other Condominium property-related matters, contain information that pertains to contracts or transactions currently under negotiation, contains information that is contained in a contract or other agreement containing confidentiality requirements and that is subject to those requirements, contain information that relates to the enforcement of the Declaration, Bylaws, or rules of the Condominium Association against a Unit Owner, or contain information the disclosure of which is prohibited by the laws of the State of Ohio or of the United States of America.

ARTICLE VIII

The Board shall cause the preparation and furnishing of an audited financial statement of the Condominium Association for the immediately preceding fiscal year in the following circumstances:

(b) to each holder, insurer, or guarantor of a first mortgage upon a Unit which requests the same, in writing, within a reasonable time thereafter, provided the audit, if an audited statement is not already available, shall be prepared at the expense of such requesting party; and

(c) during such time, if any, as the Condominium contains fifty (50) or more Units, to each holder, insurer, or guarantor of a first mortgage on a Unit who makes a written request therefor, within one hundred twenty (120) days of the Condominium Association's fiscal year-end.

ARTICLE X

INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. Third-Party Actions. The Condominium Association shall indemnify any individual who is or was a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit, or proceeding, including all appeals, other than an action, suit or proceeding by or in the right of the Condominium Association, by reason of the fact that the individual is or was a Director, officer, employee, or volunteer of the Condominium Association, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, penalties, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by that individual in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, if that individual acted in good faith and in a manner that individual reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Condominium Association and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, if that individual had no reasonable cause to believe that individual's conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit, or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, or conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not create, of itself, a presumption that the individual did not act in good faith and in a manner which that individual reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the Condominium Association and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, a presumption that the individual had reasonable cause to believe that the individual's conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. Derivative Actions. The Condominium Association shall indemnify any individual who is or was a party, or threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending, or completed action or suit, including all appeals, by or in the right of the Condominium Association to procure a judgment in its favor, by reason of the fact that the individual is or was a Director, officer, employee, or volunteer of the Condominium Association, against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by that individual in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit, if the individual acted in good faith, and in a manner that individual reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Condominium Association, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of (a) any claim, issue, or matter as to which such individual is finally adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of that individual's duty to the Condominium Association unless, and only to the extent that, the court of common pleas or the court in which such action or suit was brought determines, upon application, that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such individual is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court of common pleas or such other court considers proper, or (b) any action or suit in which a Director is found liable only pursuant to the provisions of Section 1702.55 of the Ohio Revised Code.

Section 3. Other Determinations of Rights. Unless ordered by a court, any indemnification under Sections 1 and 2 of this Article shall be made by the Condominium Association only as authorized in the specific case, upon a determination that indemnification of the Director, officer, employee, or volunteer is proper under the circumstances because that individual has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article. Such determination shall be made in any one of the following manners: (a) by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of Directors who were not and are not parties to or threatened with the action, suit, or proceeding referred to in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article, or (b) by the members by majority vote.

Section 4. Indemnification of Agents and Others. The Condominium Association may, from time to time, and in its sole discretion, indemnify any individual who is or was an agent or other authorized representative of the Condominium Association, other than those described under Sections 1 and 2 of this Article who may be indemnified, or is or was serving at the request of the Condominium Association as a director, officer, or employee of another corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against that individual or incurred by that individual in any such capacity or arising out of that individual's status as such, in the same manner and to the same extent as provided herein for Directors, officers, employees, and volunteers of the Condominium Association.

Section 5. Advances of Expenses. Expenses of each individual indemnified herein incurred in defending a civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative action, suit, or proceeding (including all appeals), or threat thereof, may be paid by the Condominium Association in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit, or proceeding as authorized by the Directors, whether a disinterested quorum exists or not, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such individual, to repay such amount, if it is ultimately determined that that individual is not entitled to be indemnified by the Condominium Association.

Section 6. Non-exclusiveness; Heirs. The foregoing rights of indemnification are not exclusive, shall be in addition to any other rights granted to those seeking indemnification as a matter of law, or under the provisions hereof, any lawful rules or regulations, any agreement, vote of members or disinterested Directors, or otherwise, both as to actions in their official capacities and as to actions in another capacity while holding their offices or positions, shall continue as to an individual who has ceased to be a Director, officer, employee, member, agent, or volunteer, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such an individual.

Section 7. Purchase of Insurance. The Condominium Association may purchase and maintain insurance, or furnish similar protection, including but not limited to trust funds, letters of credit, or self-insurance, for or on behalf of any individual who is or was a Director, officer, agent, employee, or volunteer of the Condominium Association, or is or was serving at the request of the Condominium Association as a director, officer, employee, member, manager, agent or volunteer of another corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against that individual or incurred by that individual in any such capacity, or arising out of that individual's status as such, whether or not the Condominium Association would have the power to indemnify that individual against such liability under the provisions of this Article or of the Ohio nonprofit corporation law.
